NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE FREEMAN WILL RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE SUFFERERS IN PENNSYLVANIA, AND MAKE DAILY ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF THE AMOUNTS RECEIVED.

THE Johnstown registration of the survivors grew to a list of 19,000 names yesterday. The last census of the city showed a population of 29,500. This does not include the ruined suburbs, where hundreds and possibly thousands were lost.

AMONG the rescued at Johnstown was a baby eight months old which was carried along in its cradle to the bridge and picked up. When lifted from the water it put up its hands and crowed. But no one has yet been found to claim it.

COUNTY CLERK RILEY of New York was married at Saratoga yesterday to the daughter of Caleb Mitchell. It was to facilitate this marriage that the Legislature passed a bill allowing the Deputy Clerk to officiate in the absence of the Clerk. Except for this Riley could not have obtained time to attend his own marriage or even his own funeral.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROSE of Cambria county, whose name appeared in the first published list of the dead, is alive. Along with his wife, two brothers and two sisters, he was swept across the lower portion of the town. The men could swim, and held up the women till they got into a back current and were cast ashore on the hills at Knoxville.

GOV. HILL has appointed an extraordinary term of court at Saratoga, July 9th, and named Judge Daniels of Buffalo to preside. The selection is inappropriate and unjust, for Judge Daniels likes to try a case thoroughly. One of our Democratic Judges would more fittingly complement the policy and the energy of District Attorney Fellows.

THE Municipal Council of Paris sends $1,000 to Johnstown. This is the first official recognition of our calamity by any government in Europe. The French nation responds quickly to the cry of the people who taught it the principles of free government. The American colony in Paris subscribed $8,000 yesterday, and "Buffalo Bill" gives the receipts of one "Wild West" entertainment.

THERE were 1,000 funerals in Johnstown yesterday. The long procession was composed principally of ox teams, each of which drew six coffins up the hill to the cemetery. There were no pall bearers, few mourners, and no clergymen except a few Catholic priests who followed the mangled representatives of their faith and pronounced the last blessing. Hundreds of the graves have been marked "Unknown."

THE searching for the dead at Johnstown proceeded so rapidly yesterday, and brought forth such unexpectedly large numbers, that it is feared that the largest estimate, 15,000, will be reached. A large force of doctors are at work, caring for the sick, setting broken limbs, and looking after bruises and wounds. This work is slow because the force is still inadequate. It will be weeks before these helpless people can be placed in a comfortable position.

JOHN SHOOTSMAN of Tennessee was made the blessed father of three babies on the 24th ult., and yesterday a Washington law firm received a letter from a client at the place of the event, asking for the name of Mrs. Harrison. The father had named the two boys Benjamin and Harrison, and wanted a name for the girl. The information was sent, and the feminine member of the trio will receive the name of Carrie. The affair is regarded in Tennessee as a Republican success, and the President is well pleased and will not veto the names.

THE progress of the count for Governor of West Virginia by a Legislative committee is slow, but the net gain for Fleming, the Democratic candidate, after a fortnight of hard work, is four votes. It is apparent that Goff will be counted out. If he had taken the oath of office as he at first proposed to do, declared himself Governor and called upon the President to aid him in maintaining authority, he would now be in office and the whole trouble settled. The sudden collapse of Goff's courage at the critical moment has not been explained. He may have feared assassination.

THE Civil Service Commission, which has been overhauling the violations of law at the New York custom house, publishes its report. It finds that there have been not only laxity and negligence, but positive fraud. It recommends the dismissal of C. F. Terhune and Samuel Hollander from the service, and the indictment of Terhune. Messrs. Lyman and Roosevelt also recommend the dismissal of Frederick Davis, but from this portion of the report Commissioner Thompson dissents. Davis will have to go. He is the Binghamton politician who secured the location of the government building for that city in a swamp near the river and in a remote and inconvenient suburb of the city.

LEVI MCKINNEY and Mary Black were married in Louisville yesterday after an engagement of nearly fifty years. McKinney went to the Mexican war soon after becoming engaged, and on returning was too poor to undertake housekeeping. He struggled hard but was unsuccessful. He served through the war for the Union, but after it was over remained as poor as ever. A few days ago he received a back pension of $1,700, and the wedding was arranged right away. Contrary to the usual course in such cases, the bride had not married and become a widow, but had waited patiently for him. Though Levi had become suddenly rich, Mary can hardly be accused of marrying for money.

THE New Hampshire Legislature is in session, and the canvass for United States Senator is very active. Ex-Senator Chandler leads, with Dr. Gallinger, ex-member of Congress, close behind. In any other state no candidate would be thought of except Chandler, whose great intelligence, long and varied experience, and staunch Republicanism have made him one of the leaders of the party at Washington. But New Hampshire politics are peculiar, and one of their vagaries is a leaning towards small men for the Senate. The Republican party of the nation wishes to see Mr. Chandler sent back, and would name no other candidate if it was asked to make the choice. Balloting for Senator will begin on the 19th inst.

SCENES AND INCIDENTS.

The mournful drone of locusts is all that breaks the awful stillness now at many points in the valley of the Conemaugh. Estimates made at Johnstown this afternoon show that at least 15,000 persons perished.

AT JOHNSTOWN TO-DAY.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 6.—Two hundred bodies were recovered from the ruins yesterday. Some were identified, but the great majority were not. The deeper the wreck drifts are penetrated the greater the disaster appears. On Franklin-street 13 bodies were found in a cluster yesterday, and a few minutes afterward 12 more were found.

Dr. Benjamin Lee, of the Pennsylvania State Board of Health, was asked what were the prospects of an epidemic in the valley. He said: "God only knows. To-day we started a portion of our corps of Sanitary Inspectors, who found in a little while the bodies of 50 dead animals, mostly horses. If this percentage is kept up here there is a fearful amount of decomposing animal matter to be removed or counteracted." Dr. P. M. Carrengton, of the United States Marine Hospital, estimates there are 100 cases of pneumonia in Johnstown. He ascribes its prevalence to crowded rooms, damp cellars and exposure. The cold drizzle that fell intermittingly yesterday added to the gravity of the situation in all cases where families were found huddled in damp and illy ventilated apartments. They were told to scatter and if possible abandon the ground floor. It was found that many families had not availed themselves of the opportunities of procuring warm clothing from the free supply stands. They were urged to keep their fires going continually. Yesterday R. L. Sibbet, of the State Board of Health, inspected the River towns above here. He got as far as Connellsville. He finds there is no immediate danger of disease from dead bodies except at Rockwood, where an immense collection of wreckage is full of corpses.

The Coroner's Jury proceeded to the South Fork and investigated the cause of breakage of the reservoir dam. Witnesses testified that slight breaks had appeared in the dam several times in past years, but had each time been clumsily repaired with straw, sticks and rubbish. The general impression is that the jury will declare that the Pittsburg Fishing Club, that owned the reservoir, was guilty of gross negligence. In that event many suits for damages against the millionaire club will follow.

Insurance agents estimate that the accident insurance policies alone for this place will amount to $2,000,000.

A bird's-eye view from the mountain side this morning shows that the waters in the Conemaugh Valley have subsided almost to their usual level. With the receding waters the scene of desolation becomes hourly more weird and picturesque. Like a desert swept by some fierce simoon the valley level is an unbroken plain for miles, only at last to find abrupt termination in a mountain of debris. The sun shines brightly over Cambria land this morning. The work of recovering the dead goes on with undiminished vigor, and as the workmen become accustomed to their ghastly finds and the horrors of the scenes become common-place, they apply themselves more diligently to their duty and labor with a system that produces rapid results.

The Altoona delegation has been one of the busiest and most useful on the ground. They took charge of two leading hospitals, the Cambria Hospital and that under Dr. Robinson in Johnstown, and conducted them up to this morning, when they were relieved by the Philadelphia Branch of the Red Cross Society under Clara Barton. They have also been in charge of the wreckage above the bridge. B. M. Bunker, of Altoona, has had 60 men at work, aided by David Kirk, who is doing the dynamiting. Altoona pays all the bills for this work. This party of workmen have done so well that a big blast of 25 dynamite cartridges at 10 o'clock loosened up the debris and made it possible to open the mouth of the old channel.

This gang of workmen have located the day express, which was swept away at Conemaugh. The ruins of the train lie about 100 feet from the fourth buttress from the western end of the stone bridge. Parts of the parlor cars have to-day been found as well as traces of the passengers. About 9 o'clock the baggage of Miss Anna Chism, of Nashville, Tenn., was found. She was a missionary on her way to Brazil for the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Among her effects was a Bible and in it was a message to be filed at Altoona and addressed to the Methodist Book Concern at No. 20 East Tenth-street, New-York, announcing that she was on the train. Her watch, some money and a Greek testament were also found. It is evident many lives were lost on this train, more than at first supposed. The whole train affair is still a mystery. At least the passengers have not so far been found and located. The body of a nicely-dressed lady was found yesterday which was so much decomposed as to be unrecognizable. The effects of Miss Chism were sent to Altoona.

There was a small riot at the labor camp this morning on account of there not being food enough for the men or utensils to cook it with. Mr. Flynn, who is at the head of the Labor Bureau, made a speech to the men and stated that it was almost impossible to get things down from the railroad. He said they did not want men who expected to live on the fat of the land, and that this was principally a work of charity, even though the men did get paid for their work. A few minutes afterwards as Flynn was drinking some black coffee and eating hard crackers and cheese two workmen came up and complained because they did not have soup and meat. This enraged Flynn, and after telling them he thought he was used to as good eating as they, ordered the guards to take them out of town and not permit them to come back. This had the desired effect and there was no more trouble. This morning it was stated 5,000 men were at work, and it is expected that by to-morrow 10,000 will be employed, but even this large force will not be able to remove the debris in less than two or three weeks. Last night 500 laborers had no tents to sleep in, but more will arrive this evening from Washington.

Shortly after midnight a riot was reported at Cambria City, and word was sent to Adjutant-General Hastings, requesting a detachment of soldiers. He immediately ordered one of the companies of the Fourteenth Regiment to the place, but when they arrived there they found there was little or no necessity for their services. The only trouble at the place was between some drunken Italians who were making threats.

There are 30 unidentified bodies at the Fourth Ware school house. The bodies have been there for three days and 40,000 people have viewed them but no one has identified them. During the past 24 hours 60 bodies were embalmed and taken from this place. This morning five bodies were brought in including that of Oscar Henricamp, a well known merchant. About 2,500 bodies have thus far been found, 2,000 at the lowest calculation are in the burned debris in the River, 3,000 are in unsearched sand banks around the Cambria Works, from 1,000 to 2,000 are scattered in the valley from Woodville to the bridge and 1,000 or 2,000 below the bridge between Johnstown and Bolivar. Hundreds were carried down to the big rivers in the tremendous current and may never come into the hands of the living.

Adjutant General Hastings said this morning: "In my opinion the loss is greater than we can now show figures for." William Jones, of Braddock, believes at least 10,000 to 12,000 were lost. The statement that 18,000 persons had registered at the registration bureaus yesterday was incorrect. One of General Hastings' aides said to-day that so many persons had registered twice or more that the list had to be revised and the total was not more than 13,000 and perhaps 12,500. This registration not only comprehends the population of Johnstown and adjoining towns, which was about 33,000, but embraces further away in the flooded region, the total population of which was at least 45,000.

Chairman Hicks, of the Altoona delegation who has been all over the district, says the loss is 12,500 to 14,000.

At noon the borough of Johnstown and the adjoining boroughs, or what is left of them, practically passed under martial law. Adjutant General Hastings says he has not declared martial law yet. The soldiers are on guard and no one is permitted between the lines unless they have an order from the Adjutant-General. Sight-seers are debarred altogether, and the town is inaccessible except to newspaper men and other people who have business there. Every point is guarded, and soldiers patrol the dividing lines. It is probable that the Eighteenth Regiment will be ordered out, from the fact that it takes so many soldiers to cover the ground. Special guards will have to be put at Kernville, Millvale and Cambria City and other points. It is said the only reason for calling out the troops is to relieve the Pittsburg and Johnstown policemen, who have had little or no sleep for several days.

PORTSMOUTH, O., June 6.—A large number of relics of the Johnstown disaster have been picked up here.

AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Important Resolutions Passed—Some Cheering Reports Made by Officials.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SARATOGA, June 6.—At the forenoon session of the American Home Missionary Society the conditions on which the Southern white churches that have recently applied for Congregational fellowship shall be aided by the Society were discussed. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In the full conviction that these churches are in accord with the principles of Congregationalism and with the principles of this Society and with those held by the Congregational churches which it represents,

Resolved, That we heartily welcome them to fellowship with us in the gospel. We commend them to the fraternal sympathy and prayers of all our people, and we request the officers of the society to extend to them such financial aid as they may need as promptly as the state of its treasury shall permit.

Resolved, That this society rejoices to learn that an effort is making to unite the Georgia Congregational Conference and the Georgia Congregational Association on principals of equal recognition and fellowship of all the churches of each body and trust that such a union will be accomplished.

Secretary L. H. Cobb, D. D., gave an account of the American Congregational Union whose object is to assist in building churches and parsonages. He said the total receipts for the year were $116,988, or $31,963 more than for the year before. The receipts for the first five months of 1889 were $68,000 or $13,000 more than for the same months of 1888. Houses of worship completed in the year 99 and 52 parsonages, or 19 more buildings than in 1888. There are outstanding pledges to 69 churches for aid in building houses of worship or parsonages and money is in the treasury to meet these. There was never a time when there was greater need of such work.

Seven Men Believed to Have Perished.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BANGOR, Me., June 6.—A Kingman special says Nathan Donald and six companions from Carroll left for Dobsis Lake to peel bark on May 22 and are believed to have perished. A party of 50 men with dogs have started to find them.

3 LIVES LOST IN A HOTEL.

THE YATES PRISON BILL.

Governor David B. Hill Again "Distinguishes" Himself.

GENERAL TELEGRAPH NEWS

THREE LIVES LOST AT STEVENS POINT.

The St. James Hotel With All Its Contents Destroyed by Fire.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., June 6.—The St James Hotel with all its contents was burned last night. Night Clerk Charles Oatball and two of the girls, Margaret Reilly and one known as "Nettie," are missing, and there is little doubt all three lost their lives. The two first named were on the second floor when the fire broke out and came down but went back to secure their wearing apparel. All that escaped saved nothing. The station and adjacent buildings to the hotel were saved with hard work. A number of travelling men lost their baggage and samples. Loss on hotel $15,000.

THE YATES PRISON BILL SIGNED.

Memorandum Filed With the Same by Governor David B. Hill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 6.—Governor Hill has signed the Yates bill to amend Title 2 of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of the Revised Statutes, relating to State Prisons and for other posts connected therewith, filing with it this memorandum: "A large portion of this bill is a consolidation and revision of the present confused and conflicting statutes relating to the administration of the State Prisons. This work has been carefully done by Professor Charles A. Collin, of the Law School of Cornell University, and this part of the bill meets with my hearty approval. Many new features, however, are introduced in other portions of the bill, which are concededly experimental in their nature, some of which will probably result in failure, but the experiment may be worth trying. The provisions as to labor in the prisons are manifestly the result of a compromise between conflicting interests and cannot be entirely satisfactory to any one. In my judgment toomuch discretionary power is vested in the Superintendent of State Prisons. The Legislature should have itself determined definitely the exact system of labor which the State proposes to adopt instead of having shifted that responsibility upon a State official. The bill should have provided one consistent and adequate system of labor for all the penal institutions within the State. I should have preferred that the bill should have more carefully protected the interests of free labor, but a few of its provisions are reasonably fair in that respect and it seems to be conceded that it was impossible at the late stage of the session when this bill was considered to obtain from the Legislature anything more satisfactory. The present emergency in the State Prisons as is admitted on all hands demands some affirmative action. This measure at first met with considerable opposition, but after much discussion and amendment finally passed the Legislature almost unanimously, and there has been but little opposition manifested against it since it came to my hands. It seems to have been generally assumed that the bill should become a law as the only alternative for relief from the existing situation for these reasons and because it seems to be the only practicable course left open to me at this time and not because I regard the bill as perfect or entirely satisfactory. I have concluded that it is my duty to approve it."

[Signed] "DAVID B. HILL."

IN THE MASONIC GRAND LODGE TO-DAY

The Sum of $100,000 Appropriated to Begin the Masonic Home at Utica.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, June 6.—The Grand Lodge of Free Masons continued its sessions to-day. The report of the Special Committee on Asylum was taken up and R. W. Brother Brodie reviewed the report and offered a resolution which was adopted constituting the incoming Grand Master and the Board of Trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund a Committee to apply to the Legislature for amendments to the statutes of the State of New-York providing that the Trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund shall consist of nine members, the Grand Master Ex-officio and one member from each judicial district of the State to be elected by the Grand Lodge; that the term of office for the first Board of Trustees to be chosen shall be determined by lot, two holding for the term of one year, two for the term of two years, two for the term of three years and two for four years; their successors to be chosen at the first annual communication of the Grand Lodge to hold for the full term of four years. As suggested by the report, the Masonic Home to be constructed on the lands purchased in Utica known as the Utica Driving Park, will consist of a three-story building to be used for offices and a number of small cottages. The sum of $100,000 was appropriated to begin the buildings as soon as title to the land is acquired.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got
from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my
dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the
handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I
loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress
in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks
Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist
had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete
was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived
my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man
can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest
man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said
she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting,
neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

Marks Jacobs.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE FREEMAN WILL RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE SUFFERERS IN PENNSYLVANIA, AND MAKE DAILY ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF THE AMOUNTS RECEIVED.

THE Johnstown registration of the survivors grew to a list of 19,000 names yesterday. The last census of the city showed a population of 29,500. This does not include the ruined suburbs, where hundreds and possibly thousands were lost.

AMONG the rescued at Johnstown was a baby eight months old which was carried along in its cradle to the bridge and picked up. When lifted from the water it put up its hands and crowed. But no one has yet been found to claim it.

COUNTY CLERK RILEY of New York was married at Saratoga yesterday to the daughter of Caleb Mitchell. It was to facilitate this marriage that the Legislature passed a bill allowing the Deputy Clerk to officiate in the absence of the Clerk. Except for this Riley could not have obtained time to attend his own marriage or even his own funeral.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROSE of Cambria county, whose name appeared in the first published list of the dead, is alive. Along with his wife, two brothers and two sisters, he was swept across the lower portion of the town. The men could swim, and held up the women till they got into a back current and were cast ashore on the hills at Knoxville.

GOV. HILL has appointed an extraordinary term of court at Saratoga, July 9th, and named Judge Daniels of Buffalo to preside. The selection is inappropriate and unjust, for Judge Daniels likes to try a case thoroughly. One of our Democratic Judges would more fittingly complement the policy and the energy of District Attorney Fellows.

THE Municipal Council of Paris sends $1,000 to Johnstown. This is the first official recognition of our calamity by any government in Europe. The French nation responds quickly to the cry of the people who taught it the principles of free government. The American colony in Paris subscribed $8,000 yesterday, and "Buffalo Bill" gives the receipts of one "Wild West" entertainment.

THERE were 1,000 funerals in Johnstown yesterday. The long procession was composed principally of ox teams, each of which drew six coffins up the hill to the cemetery. There were no pall bearers, few mourners, and no clergymen except a few Catholic priests who followed the mangled representatives of their faith and pronounced the last blessing. Hundreds of the graves have been marked "Unknown."

THE searching for the dead at Johnstown proceeded so rapidly yesterday, and brought forth such unexpectedly large numbers, that it is feared that the largest estimate, 15,000, will be reached. A large force of doctors are at work, caring for the sick, setting broken limbs, and looking after bruises and wounds. This work is slow because the force is still inadequate. It will be weeks before these helpless people can be placed in a comfortable position.

JOHN SHOOTSMAN of Tennessee was made the blessed father of three babies on the 24th ult., and yesterday a Washington law firm received a letter from a client at the place of the event, asking for the name of Mrs. Harrison. The father had named the two boys Benjamin and Harrison, and wanted a name for the girl. The information was sent, and the feminine member of the trio will receive the name of Carrie. The affair is regarded in Tennessee as a Republican success, and the President is well pleased and will not veto the names.

THE progress of the count for Governor of West Virginia by a Legislative committee is slow, but the net gain for Fleming, the Democratic candidate, after a fortnight of hard work, is four votes. It is apparent that Goff will be counted out. If he had taken the oath of office as he at first proposed to do, declared himself Governor and called upon the President to aid him in maintaining authority, he would now be in office and the whole trouble settled. The sudden collapse of Goff's courage at the critical moment has not been explained. He may have feared assassination.

THE Civil Service Commission, which has been overhauling the violations of law at the New York custom house, publishes its report. It finds that there have been not only laxity and negligence, but positive fraud. It recommends the dismissal of C. F. Terhune and Samuel Hollander from the service, and the indictment of Terhune. Messrs. Lyman and Roosevelt also recommend the dismissal of Frederick Davis, but from this portion of the report Commissioner Thompson dissents. Davis will have to go. He is the Binghamton politician who secured the location of the government building for that city in a swamp near the river and in a remote and inconvenient suburb of the city.

LEVI MCKINNEY and Mary Black were married in Louisville yesterday after an engagement of nearly fifty years. McKinney went to the Mexican war soon after becoming engaged, and on returning was too poor to undertake housekeeping. He struggled hard but was unsuccessful. He served through the war for the Union, but after it was over remained as poor as ever. A few days ago he received a back pension of $1,700, and the wedding was arranged right away. Contrary to the usual course in such cases, the bride had not married and become a widow, but had waited patiently for him. Though Levi had become suddenly rich, Mary can hardly be accused of marrying for money.

THE New Hampshire Legislature is in session, and the canvass for United States Senator is very active. Ex-Senator Chandler leads, with Dr. Gallinger, ex-member of Congress, close behind. In any other state no candidate would be thought of except Chandler, whose great intelligence, long and varied experience, and staunch Republicanism have made him one of the leaders of the party at Washington. But New Hampshire politics are peculiar, and one of their vagaries is a leaning towards small men for the Senate. The Republican party of the nation wishes to see Mr. Chandler sent back, and would name no other candidate if it was asked to make the choice. Balloting for Senator will begin on the 19th inst.

SCENES AND INCIDENTS.

The mournful drone of locusts is all that breaks the awful stillness now at many points in the valley of the Conemaugh. Estimates made at Johnstown this afternoon show that at least 15,000 persons perished.

AT JOHNSTOWN TO-DAY.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 6.—Two hundred bodies were recovered from the ruins yesterday. Some were identified, but the great majority were not. The deeper the wreck drifts are penetrated the greater the disaster appears. On Franklin-street 13 bodies were found in a cluster yesterday, and a few minutes afterward 12 more were found.

Dr. Benjamin Lee, of the Pennsylvania State Board of Health, was asked what were the prospects of an epidemic in the valley. He said: "God only knows. To-day we started a portion of our corps of Sanitary Inspectors, who found in a little while the bodies of 50 dead animals, mostly horses. If this percentage is kept up here there is a fearful amount of decomposing animal matter to be removed or counteracted." Dr. P. M. Carrengton, of the United States Marine Hospital, estimates there are 100 cases of pneumonia in Johnstown. He ascribes its prevalence to crowded rooms, damp cellars and exposure. The cold drizzle that fell intermittingly yesterday added to the gravity of the situation in all cases where families were found huddled in damp and illy ventilated apartments. They were told to scatter and if possible abandon the ground floor. It was found that many families had not availed themselves of the opportunities of procuring warm clothing from the free supply stands. They were urged to keep their fires going continually. Yesterday R. L. Sibbet, of the State Board of Health, inspected the River towns above here. He got as far as Connellsville. He finds there is no immediate danger of disease from dead bodies except at Rockwood, where an immense collection of wreckage is full of corpses.

The Coroner's Jury proceeded to the South Fork and investigated the cause of breakage of the reservoir dam. Witnesses testified that slight breaks had appeared in the dam several times in past years, but had each time been clumsily repaired with straw, sticks and rubbish. The general impression is that the jury will declare that the Pittsburg Fishing Club, that owned the reservoir, was guilty of gross negligence. In that event many suits for damages against the millionaire club will follow.

Insurance agents estimate that the accident insurance policies alone for this place will amount to $2,000,000.

A bird's-eye view from the mountain side this morning shows that the waters in the Conemaugh Valley have subsided almost to their usual level. With the receding waters the scene of desolation becomes hourly more weird and picturesque. Like a desert swept by some fierce simoon the valley level is an unbroken plain for miles, only at last to find abrupt termination in a mountain of debris. The sun shines brightly over Cambria land this morning. The work of recovering the dead goes on with undiminished vigor, and as the workmen become accustomed to their ghastly finds and the horrors of the scenes become common-place, they apply themselves more diligently to their duty and labor with a system that produces rapid results.

The Altoona delegation has been one of the busiest and most useful on the ground. They took charge of two leading hospitals, the Cambria Hospital and that under Dr. Robinson in Johnstown, and conducted them up to this morning, when they were relieved by the Philadelphia Branch of the Red Cross Society under Clara Barton. They have also been in charge of the wreckage above the bridge. B. M. Bunker, of Altoona, has had 60 men at work, aided by David Kirk, who is doing the dynamiting. Altoona pays all the bills for this work. This party of workmen have done so well that a big blast of 25 dynamite cartridges at 10 o'clock loosened up the debris and made it possible to open the mouth of the old channel.

This gang of workmen have located the day express, which was swept away at Conemaugh. The ruins of the train lie about 100 feet from the fourth buttress from the western end of the stone bridge. Parts of the parlor cars have to-day been found as well as traces of the passengers. About 9 o'clock the baggage of Miss Anna Chism, of Nashville, Tenn., was found. She was a missionary on her way to Brazil for the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Among her effects was a Bible and in it was a message to be filed at Altoona and addressed to the Methodist Book Concern at No. 20 East Tenth-street, New-York, announcing that she was on the train. Her watch, some money and a Greek testament were also found. It is evident many lives were lost on this train, more than at first supposed. The whole train affair is still a mystery. At least the passengers have not so far been found and located. The body of a nicely-dressed lady was found yesterday which was so much decomposed as to be unrecognizable. The effects of Miss Chism were sent to Altoona.

There was a small riot at the labor camp this morning on account of there not being food enough for the men or utensils to cook it with. Mr. Flynn, who is at the head of the Labor Bureau, made a speech to the men and stated that it was almost impossible to get things down from the railroad. He said they did not want men who expected to live on the fat of the land, and that this was principally a work of charity, even though the men did get paid for their work. A few minutes afterwards as Flynn was drinking some black coffee and eating hard crackers and cheese two workmen came up and complained because they did not have soup and meat. This enraged Flynn, and after telling them he thought he was used to as good eating as they, ordered the guards to take them out of town and not permit them to come back. This had the desired effect and there was no more trouble. This morning it was stated 5,000 men were at work, and it is expected that by to-morrow 10,000 will be employed, but even this large force will not be able to remove the debris in less than two or three weeks. Last night 500 laborers had no tents to sleep in, but more will arrive this evening from Washington.

Shortly after midnight a riot was reported at Cambria City, and word was sent to Adjutant-General Hastings, requesting a detachment of soldiers. He immediately ordered one of the companies of the Fourteenth Regiment to the place, but when they arrived there they found there was little or no necessity for their services. The only trouble at the place was between some drunken Italians who were making threats.

There are 30 unidentified bodies at the Fourth Ware school house. The bodies have been there for three days and 40,000 people have viewed them but no one has identified them. During the past 24 hours 60 bodies were embalmed and taken from this place. This morning five bodies were brought in including that of Oscar Henricamp, a well known merchant. About 2,500 bodies have thus far been found, 2,000 at the lowest calculation are in the burned debris in the River, 3,000 are in unsearched sand banks around the Cambria Works, from 1,000 to 2,000 are scattered in the valley from Woodville to the bridge and 1,000 or 2,000 below the bridge between Johnstown and Bolivar. Hundreds were carried down to the big rivers in the tremendous current and may never come into the hands of the living.

Adjutant General Hastings said this morning: "In my opinion the loss is greater than we can now show figures for." William Jones, of Braddock, believes at least 10,000 to 12,000 were lost. The statement that 18,000 persons had registered at the registration bureaus yesterday was incorrect. One of General Hastings' aides said to-day that so many persons had registered twice or more that the list had to be revised and the total was not more than 13,000 and perhaps 12,500. This registration not only comprehends the population of Johnstown and adjoining towns, which was about 33,000, but embraces further away in the flooded region, the total population of which was at least 45,000.

Chairman Hicks, of the Altoona delegation who has been all over the district, says the loss is 12,500 to 14,000.

At noon the borough of Johnstown and the adjoining boroughs, or what is left of them, practically passed under martial law. Adjutant General Hastings says he has not declared martial law yet. The soldiers are on guard and no one is permitted between the lines unless they have an order from the Adjutant-General. Sight-seers are debarred altogether, and the town is inaccessible except to newspaper men and other people who have business there. Every point is guarded, and soldiers patrol the dividing lines. It is probable that the Eighteenth Regiment will be ordered out, from the fact that it takes so many soldiers to cover the ground. Special guards will have to be put at Kernville, Millvale and Cambria City and other points. It is said the only reason for calling out the troops is to relieve the Pittsburg and Johnstown policemen, who have had little or no sleep for several days.

PORTSMOUTH, O., June 6.—A large number of relics of the Johnstown disaster have been picked up here.

AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Important Resolutions Passed—Some Cheering Reports Made by Officials.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SARATOGA, June 6.—At the forenoon session of the American Home Missionary Society the conditions on which the Southern white churches that have recently applied for Congregational fellowship shall be aided by the Society were discussed. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In the full conviction that these churches are in accord with the principles of Congregationalism and with the principles of this Society and with those held by the Congregational churches which it represents,

Resolved, That we heartily welcome them to fellowship with us in the gospel. We commend them to the fraternal sympathy and prayers of all our people, and we request the officers of the society to extend to them such financial aid as they may need as promptly as the state of its treasury shall permit.

Resolved, That this society rejoices to learn that an effort is making to unite the Georgia Congregational Conference and the Georgia Congregational Association on principals of equal recognition and fellowship of all the churches of each body and trust that such a union will be accomplished.

Secretary L. H. Cobb, D. D., gave an account of the American Congregational Union whose object is to assist in building churches and parsonages. He said the total receipts for the year were $116,988, or $31,963 more than for the year before. The receipts for the first five months of 1889 were $68,000 or $13,000 more than for the same months of 1888. Houses of worship completed in the year 99 and 52 parsonages, or 19 more buildings than in 1888. There are outstanding pledges to 69 churches for aid in building houses of worship or parsonages and money is in the treasury to meet these. There was never a time when there was greater need of such work.

Seven Men Believed to Have Perished.

BANGOR, Me., June 6.—A Kingman special says Nathan Donald and six companions from Carroll left for Dobsis Lake to peel bark on May 22 and are believed to have perished. A party of 50 men with dogs have started to find them.

THE YATES PRISON BILL.

Governor David B. Hill Again "Distinguishes" Himself.

GENERAL TELEGRAPH NEWS

THREE LIVES LOST AT STEVENS POINT.

The St. James Hotel With All Its Contents Destroyed by Fire.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., June 6.—The St James Hotel with all its contents was burned last night. Night Clerk Charles Oatball and two of the girls, Margaret Reilly and one known as "Nettie," are missing, and there is little doubt all three lost their lives. The two first named were on the second floor when the fire broke out and came down but went back to secure their wearing apparel. All that escaped saved nothing. The station and adjacent buildings to the hotel were saved with hard work. A number of travelling men lost their baggage and samples. Loss on hotel $15,000.

THE YATES PRISON BILL SIGNED.

Memorandum Filed With the Same by Governor David B. Hill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 6.—Governor Hill has signed the Yates bill to amend Title 2 of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of the Revised Statutes, relating to State Prisons and for other posts connected therewith, filing with it this memorandum: "A large portion of this bill is a consolidation and revision of the present confused and conflicting statutes relating to the administration of the State Prisons. This work has been carefully done by Professor Charles A. Collin, of the Law School of Cornell University, and this part of the bill meets with my hearty approval. Many new features, however, are introduced in other portions of the bill, which are concededly experimental in their nature, some of which will probably result in failure, but the experiment may be worth trying. The provisions as to labor in the prisons are manifestly the result of a compromise between conflicting interests and cannot be entirely satisfactory to any one. In my judgment toomuch discretionary power is vested in the Superintendent of State Prisons. The Legislature should have itself determined definitely the exact system of labor which the State proposes to adopt instead of having shifted that responsibility upon a State official. The bill should have provided one consistent and adequate system of labor for all the penal institutions within the State. I should have preferred that the bill should have more carefully protected the interests of free labor, but a few of its provisions are reasonably fair in that respect and it seems to be conceded that it was impossible at the late stage of the session when this bill was considered to obtain from the Legislature anything more satisfactory. The present emergency in the State Prisons as is admitted on all hands demands some affirmative action. This measure at first met with considerable opposition, but after much discussion and amendment finally passed the Legislature almost unanimously, and there has been but little opposition manifested against it since it came to my hands. It seems to have been generally assumed that the bill should become a law as the only alternative for relief from the existing situation for these reasons and because it seems to be the only practicable course left open to me at this time and not because I regard the bill as perfect or entirely satisfactory. I have concluded that it is my duty to approve it."

[Signed] "DAVID B. HILL."

IN THE MASONIC GRAND LODGE TO-DAY

The Sum of $100,000 Appropriated to Begin the Masonic Home at Utica.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, June 6.—The Grand Lodge of Free Masons continued its sessions to day. The report of the Special Committee on Asylum was taken up and R. W. Brother Brodie reviewed the report and offered a resolution which was adopted constituting the incoming Grand Master and the Board of Trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund a Committee to apply to the Legislature for amendments to the statutes of the State of New-York providing that the Trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund shall consist of nine members, the Grand Master Ex officio and one member from each judicial district of the State to be elected by the Grand Lodge; that the term of office for the first Board of Trustees to be chosen shall be determined by lot, two holding for the term of one year, two for the term of two years, two for the term of three years and two for four years; their successors to be chosen at the first annual communication of the Grand Lodge to hold for the full term of four years. As suggested by the report, the Masonic Home to be constructed on the lands purchased in Utica known as the Utica Driving Park, will consist of a three-story building to be used for offices and a number of small cottages. The sum of $100,000 was appropriated to begin the buildings as soon as title to the land is acquired.

Shot by a Woman.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., June 6.—George Parmer and his son were shot last night by Mrs. Corwin. The father was badly wounded and the son fatally. They were trying to gain admittance to the woman's house against her will. Mrs. Corwin has a record of having married and divorced seven husbands.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got
from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my
dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the
handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I
loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress
in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks
Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist
had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete
was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived
my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man
can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest
man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said
she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting,
neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

Marks Jacobs.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE FREEMAN WILL RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE SUFFERERS IN PENNSYLVANIA, AND MAKE DAILY ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF THE AMOUNTS RECEIVED.

THE Johnstown registration of the survivors grew to a list of 19,000 names yesterday. The last census of the city showed a population of 29,500. This does not include the ruined suburbs, where hundreds and possibly thousands were lost.

AMONG the rescued at Johnstown was a baby eight months old which was carried along in its cradle to the bridge and picked up. When lifted from the water it put up its hands and crowed. But no one has yet been found to claim it.

COUNTY CLERK RILEY of New York was married at Saratoga yesterday to the daughter of Caleb Mitchell. It was to facilitate this marriage that the Legislature passed a bill allowing the Deputy Clerk to officiate in the absence of the Clerk. Except for this Riley could not have obtained time to attend his own marriage or even his own funeral.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROSE of Cambria county, whose name appeared in the first published list of the dead, is alive. Along with his wife, two brothers and two sisters, he was swept across the lower portion of the town. The men could swim, and held up the women till they got into a back current and were cast ashore on the hills at Knoxville.

GOV. HILL has appointed an extraordinary term of court at Saratoga, July 9th, and named Judge Daniels of Buffalo to preside. The selection is inappropriate and unjust, for Judge Daniels likes to try a case thoroughly. One of our Democratic Judges would more fittingly complement the policy and the energy of District Attorney Fellows.

THE Municipal Council of Paris sends $1,000 to Johnstown. This is the first official recognition of our calamity by any government in Europe. The French nation responds quickly to the cry of the people who taught it the principles of free government. The American colony in Paris subscribed $8,000 yesterday, and "Buffalo Bill" gives the receipts of one "Wild West" entertainment.

THERE were 1,000 funerals in Johnstown yesterday. The long procession was composed principally of ox teams, each of which drew six coffins up the hill to the cemetery. There were no pall bearers, few mourners, and no clergymen except a few Catholic priests who followed the mangled representatives of their faith and pronounced the last blessing. Hundreds of the graves have been marked "Unknown."

THE searching for the dead at Johnstown proceeded so rapidly yesterday, and brought forth such unexpectedly large numbers, that it is feared that the largest estimate, 15,000, will be reached. A large force of doctors are at work, caring for the sick, setting broken limbs, and looking after bruises and wounds. This work is slow because the force is still inadequate. It will be weeks before these helpless people can be placed in a comfortable position.

JOHN SHOOTSMAN of Tennessee was made the blessed father of three babies on the 24th ult., and yesterday a Washington law firm received a letter from a client at the place of the event, asking for the name of Mrs. Harrison. The father had named the two boys Benjamin and Harrison, and wanted a name for the girl. The information was sent, and the feminine member of the trio will receive the name of Carrie. The affair is regarded in Tennessee as a Republican success, and the President is well pleased and will not veto the names.

THE progress of the count for Governor of West Virginia by a Legislative committee is slow, but the net gain for Fleming, the Democratic candidate, after a fortnight of hard work, is four votes. It is apparent that Goff will be counted out. If he had taken the oath of office as he at first proposed to do, declared himself Governor and called upon the President to aid him in maintaining authority, he would now be in office and the whole trouble settled. The sudden collapse of Goff's courage at the critical moment has not been explained. He may have feared assassination.

THE Civil Service Commission, which has been overhauling the violations of law at the New York custom house, publishes its report. It finds that there have been not only laxity and negligence, but positive fraud. It recommends the dismissal of C. F. Terhune and Samuel Hollander from the service, and the indictment of Terhune. Messrs. Lyman and Roosevelt also recommend the dismissal of Frederick Davis, but from this portion of the report Commissioner Thompson dissents, Davis will have to go. He is the Binghamton politician who secured the location of the government building for that city in a swamp near the river and in a remote and inconvenient suburb of the city.

LEVI MCKINNEY and Mary Black were married in Louisville yesterday after an engagement of nearly fifty years. McKinney went to the Mexican war soon after becoming engaged, and on returning was too poor to undertake housekeeping. He struggled hard but was unsuccessful. He served through the war for the Union, but after it was over remained as poor as ever. A few days ago he received a back pension of $1,700, and the wedding was arranged right away. Contrary to the usual course in such cases, the bride had not married and become a widow, but had waited patiently for him. Though Levi had become suddenly rich, Mary can hardly be accused of marrying for money.

THE New Hampshire Legislature is in session, and the canvass for United States Senator is very active. Ex-Senator Chandler leads, with Dr. Gallinger, ex-member of Congress, close behind. In any other state no candidate would be thought of except Chandler, whose great intelligence, long and varied experience, and staunch Republicanism have made him one of the leaders of the party at Washington. But New Hampshire politics are peculiar, and one of their vagaries is a leaning towards small men for the Senate. The Republican party of the nation wishes to see Mr. Chandler sent back, and would name no other candidate if it was asked to make the choice. Balloting for Senator will begin on the 19th inst.

SCENES AND INCIDENTS.

The mournful drone of locusts is all that breaks the awful stillness now at many points in the valley of the Conemaugh. Estimates made at Johnstown this afternoon show that at least 15,000 persons perished.

AT JOHNSTOWN TO-DAY.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 6.—Two hundred bodies were recovered from the ruins yesterday. Some were identified, but the great majority were not. The deeper the wreck drifts are penetrated the greater the disaster appears. On Franklin-street 13 bodies were found in a cluster yesterday, and a few minutes afterward 12 more were found.

Dr. Benjamin Lee, of the Pennsylvania State Board of Health, was asked what were the prospects of an epidemic in the valley. He said: "God only knows. To-day we started a portion of our corps of Sanitary Inspectors, who found in a little while the bodies of 50 dead animals, mostly horses. If this percentage is kept up here there is a fearful amount of decomposing animal matter to be removed or counteracted." Dr. P. M. Carrengton, of the United States Marine Hospital, estimates there are 100 cases of pneumonia in Johnstown. He ascribes its prevalence to crowded rooms, damp cellars and exposure. The cold drizzle that fell intermittingly yesterday added to the gravity of the situation in all cases where families were found huddled in damp and illy ventilated apartments. They were told to scatter and if possible abandon the ground floor. It was found that many families had not availed themselves of the opportunities of procuring warm clothing from the free supply stands. They were urged to keep their fires going continually. Yesterday R. L. Sibbet, of the State Board of Health, inspected the River towns above here. He got as far as Connellsville. He finds there is no immediate danger of disease from dead bodies except at Rockwood, where an immense collection of wreckage is full of corpses.

The Coroner's Jury proceeded to the South Fork and investigated the cause of breakage of the reservoir dam. Witnesses testified that slight breaks had appeared in the dam several times in past years, but had each time been clumsily repaired with straw, sticks and rubbish. The general impression is that the jury will declare that the Pittsburg Fishing Club, that owned the reservoir, was guilty of gross negligence. In that event many suits for damages against the millionaire club will follow.

Insurance agents estimate that the accident insurance policies alone for this place will amount to $2,000,000.

A bird's-eye view from the mountain side this morning shows that the waters in the Conemaugh Valley have subsided almost to their usual level. With the receding waters the scene of desolation becomes hourly more weird and picturesque. Like a desert swept by some fierce simoon the valley level is an unbroken plain for miles, only at last to find abrupt termination in a mountain of debris. The sun shines brightly over Cambria land this morning. The work of recovering the dead goes on with undiminished vigor, and as the workmen become accustomed to their ghastly finds and the horrors of the scenes become common-place, they apply themselves more diligently to their duty and labor with a system that produces rapid results.

The Altoona delegation has been one of the busiest and most useful on the ground. They took charge of two leading hospitals, the Cambria Hospital and that under Dr. Robinson in Johnstown, and conducted them up to this morning, when they were relieved by the Philadelphia Branch of the Red Cross Society under Clara Barton. They have also been in charge of the wreckage above the bridge. B. M. Bunker, of Altoona, has had 60 men at work, aided by David Kirk, who is doing the dynamiting. Altoona pays all the bills for this work. This party of workmen have done so well that a big blast of 25 dynamite cartridges at 10 o'clock loosened up the debris and made it possible to open the mouth of the old channel.

This gang of workmen have located the day express, which was swept away at Conemaugh. The ruins of the train lie about 100 feet from the fourth buttress from the western end of the stone bridge. Parts of the parlor cars have to-day been found as well as traces of the passengers. About 9 o'clock the baggage of Miss Anna Chism, of Nashville, Tenn., was found. She was a missionary on her way to Brazil for the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Among her effects was a Bible and in it was a message to be filed at Altoona and addressed to the Methodist Book Concern at No. 20 East Tenth-street, New-York, announcing that she was on the train. Her watch, some money and a Greek testament were also found. It is evident many lives were lost on this train, more than at first supposed. The whole train affair is still a mystery. At least the passengers have not so far been found and located. The body of a nicely-dressed lady was found yesterday which was so much decomposed as to be unrecognizable. The effects of Miss Chism were sent to Altoona.

There was a small riot at the labor camp this morning on account of there not being food enough for the men or utensils to cook it with. Mr. Flynn, who is at the head of the Labor Bureau, made a speech to the men and stated that it was almost impossible to get things down from the railroad. He said they did not want men who expected to live on the fat of the land, and that this was principally a work of charity, even though the men did get paid for their work. A few minutes afterwards as Flynn was drinking some black coffee and eating hard crackers and cheese two workmen came up and complained because they did not have soup and meat. This enraged Flynn, and after telling them he thought he was used to as good eating as they, ordered the guards to take them out of town and not permit them to come back. This had the desired effect and there was no more trouble. This morning it was stated 5,000 men were at work, and it is expected that by to-morrow 10,000 will be employed, but even this large force will not be able to remove the debris in less than two or three weeks. Last night 500 laborers had no tents to sleep in, but more will arrive this evening from Washington.

Shortly after midnight a riot was reported at Cambria City, and word was sent to Adjutant-General Hastings, requesting a detachment of soldiers. He immediately ordered one of the companies of the Fourteenth Regiment to the place, but when they arrived there they found there was little or no necessity for their services. The only trouble at the place was between some drunken Italians who were making threats.

There are 30 unidentified bodies at the Fourth Ware school house. The bodies have been there for three days and 40,000 people have viewed them but no one has identified them. During the past 24 hours 60 bodies were embalmed and taken from this place. This morning five bodies were brought in including that of Oscar Henricamp, a well known merchant. About 2,500 bodies have thus far been found, 2,000 at the lowest calculation are in the burned debris in the River, 3,000 are in unsearched sand banks around the Cambria Works, from 1,000 to 2,000 are scattered in the valley from Woodville to the bridge and 1,000 or 2,000 below the bridge between Johnstown and Bolivar. Hundreds were carried down to the big rivers in the tremendous current and may never come into the hands of the living.

Adjutant General Hastings said this morning: "In my opinion the loss is greater than we can now show figures for." William Jones, of Braddock, believes at least 10,000 to 12,000 were lost. The statement that 18,000 persons had registered at the registration bureaus yesterday was incorrect. One of General Hastings' aides said to-day that so many persons had registered twice or more that the list had to be revised and the total was not more than 13,000 and perhaps 12,500. This registration not only comprehends the population of Johnstown and adjoining towns, which was about 33,000, but embraces further away in the flooded region, the total population of which was at least 45,000.

Chairman Hicks, of the Altoona delegation who has been all over the district, says the loss is 12,500 to 14,000.

At noon the borough of Johnstown and the adjoining boroughs, or what is left of them, practically passed under martial law. Adjutant General Hastings says he has not declared martial law yet. The soldiers are on guard and no one is permitted between the lines unless they have an order from the Adjutant-General. Sight-seers are debarred altogether, and the town is inaccessible except to newspaper men and other people who have business there. Every point is guarded, and soldiers patrol the dividing lines. It is probable that the Eighteenth Regiment will be ordered out, from the fact that it takes so many soldiers to cover the ground. Special guards will have to be put at Kernville, Millvale and Cambria City and other points. It is said the only reason for calling out the troops is to relieve the Pittsburg and Johnstown policemen, who have had little or no sleep for several days.

PORTSMOUTH, O., June 6.—A large number of relics of the Johnstown disaster have been picked up here.

AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Important Resolutions Passed—Some Cheering Reports Made by Officials.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SARATOGA, June 6.—At the forenoon session of the American Home Missionary Society the conditions on which the Southern white churches that have recently applied for Congregational fellowship shall be aided by the Society were discussed. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In the full conviction that these churches are in accord with the principles of Congregationalism and with the principles of this Society and with those held by the Congregational churches which it represents,

Resolved, That we heartily welcome them to fellowship with us in the gospel. We commend them to the fraternal sympathy and prayers of all our people, and we request the officers of the society to extend to them such financial aid as they may need as promptly as the state of its treasury shall permit.

Resolved, That this society rejoices to learn that an effort is making to unite the Georgia Congregational Conference and the Georgia Congregational Association on principals of equal recognition and fellowship of all the churches of each body and trust that such a union will be accomplished.

Secretary L. H. Cobb, D. D., gave an account of the American Congregational Union whose object is to assist in building churches and parsonages. He said the total receipts for the year were $116,988, or $31,963 more than for the year before. The receipts for the first five months of 1889 were $68,000 or $13,000 more than for the same months of 1888. Houses of worship completed in the year 99 and 52 parsonages, or 19 more buildings than in 1888. There are outstanding pledges to 69 churches for aid in building houses of worship or parsonages and money is in the treasury to meet these. There was never a time when there was greater need of such work.

Seven Men Believed to Have Perished.

THREE LIVES LOST AT STEVENS POINT.

The St. James Hotel With All Its Contents Destroyed by Fire.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., June 6.—The St James Hotel with all its contents was burned last night. Night Clerk Charles Oatball and two of the girls, Margaret Reilly and one known as "Nettie," are missing, and there is little doubt all three lost their lives. The two first named were on the second floor when the fire broke out and came down but went back to secure their wearing apparel. All that escaped saved nothing. The station and adjacent buildings to the hotel were saved with hard work. A number of travelling men lost their baggage and samples. Loss on hotel $15,000.

THE YATES PRISON BILL SIGNED.

Memorandum Filed With the Same by Governor David B. Hill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 6.—Governor Hill has signed the Yates bill to amend Title 2 of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of the Revised Statutes, relating to State Prisons and for other posts connected therewith, filing with it this memorandum: "A large portion of this bill is a consolidation and revision of the present confused and conflicting statutes relating to the administration of the State Prisons. This work has been carefully done by Professor Charles A. Collin, of the Law School of Cornell University, and this part of the bill meets with my hearty approval. Many new features, however, are introduced in other portions of the bill, which are concededly experimental in their nature, some of which will probably result in failure, but the experiment may be worth trying. The provisions as to labor in the prisons are manifestly the result of a compromise between conflicting interests and cannot be entirely satisfactory to any one. In my judgment toomuch discretionary power is vested in the Superintendent of State Prisons. The Legislature should have itself determined definitely the exact system of labor which the State proposes to adopt instead of having shifted that responsibility upon a State official. The bill should have provided one consistent and adequate system of labor for all the penal institutions within the State. I should have preferred that the bill should have more carefully protected the interests of free labor, but a few of its provisions are reasonably fair in that respect and it seems to be conceded that it was impossible at the late stage of the session when this bill was considered to obtain from the Legislature anything more satisfactory. The present emergency in the State Prisons as is admitted on all hands demands some affirmative action. This measure at first met with considerable opposition, but after much discussion and amendment finally passed the Legislature almost unanimously, and there has been but little opposition manifested against it since it came to my hands. It seems to have been generally assumed that the bill should become a law as the only alternative for relief from the existing situation for these reasons and because it seems to be the only practicable course left open to me at this time and not because I regard the bill as perfect or entirely satisfactory. I have concluded that it is my duty to approve it."

[Signed] "DAVID B. HILL."

IN THE MASONIC GRAND LODGE TO-DAY

The Sum of $100,000 Appropriated to Begin the Masonic Home at Utica.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, June 6.—The Grand Lodge of Free Masons continued its sessions to-day. The report of the Special Committee on Asylum was taken up and R. W. Brother Brodie reviewed the report and offered a resolution which was adopted constituting the incoming Grand Master and the Board of Trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund a Committee to apply to the Legislature for amendments to the statutes of the State of New-York providing that the Trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund shall consist of nine members, the Grand Master Ex-officio and one member from each judicial district of the State to be elected by the Grand Lodge; that the term of office for the first Board of Trustees to be chosen shall be determined by lot, two holding for the term of one year, two for the term of two years, two for the term of three years and two for four years; their successors to be chosen at the first annual communication of the Grand Lodge to hold for the full term of four years. As suggested by the report, the Masonic Home to be constructed on the lands purchased in Utica known as the Utica Driving Park, will consist of a three-story building to be used for offices and a number of small cottages. The sum of $100,000 was appropriated to begin the buildings as soon as title to the land is acquired.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got
from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my
dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the
handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I
loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress
in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks
Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist
had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete
was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived
my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man
can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest
man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said
she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting,
neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

AID FOR JOHNSTOWN.

THE FREEMAN has opened a subscription list in aid of the Johnstown sufferers, and a list of subscriptions received to-day is published on our fourth page. The heart of the nation is responding most generously, but the largest possible sum will be almost infinitesimally small in comparison with the loss sustained and the immediate needs of the desolated places. The gifts of those who feel the duty of giving (and who does not?) should be made quickly and as large as possible. In spite of the large sums of money and the great stores of supplies already forwarded, the destitution is becoming daily more apparent and the suffering greater. THE FREEMAN will receive and promptly acknowledge and forward all sums entrusted to it.

CUBA FOR THE UNITED STATES.

A rumor, started from Washington, is in circulation that Secretary Blaine is favorable to the purchase of Cuba, and that President Harrison is considering the advisabily of submitting the question to Congress. Cuba has been a country of great interest to the United States for many years, and shortly before his election to the Presidency James Buchanan, as the United States Minister to England, joined in the issue of the famous "Ostend Manifesto," which declared in effect that if Spain would not sell the Island the United States would be justified in seizing it. At that time it was eagerly desired by the South for the extension of the area of slavery. But the election of a Republican Congress in 1854 prevented the consummation, and the political strife and civil war that followed caused it to be forgotten. Even the Southern politicians permitted their attention to be diverted from it during Buchanan's administration by the struggle to seize Kansas for the slave power.

If the South has any special interest in the acquisition now, it is of a different character, for slavery has ceased to exist in Cuba as well as in the United States. The soil is fertile and a very large portion adapted to sugar growing, the only semi-tropical product of importance which we have not already the land to produce in sufficient quantities for the national supply. It is also a hot-bed of yellow fever and other tropical pestilences, which are quickly communicated to the Southern states, while it is too poor and the people too lacking in enterprise to adopt effective sanitary measures. If there is really a desire on the part of the administration to buy the Island, it is with the object first of all to put a boycott on the yellow fever crop. We understand that this is especially Mr. Blaine's view and wish.

As a strategic point it would be of great value to the United States in a war with any foreign power, for it commands the entrance to the Gulf of Mexico. If that war should occur with a nation in possession of the island, its strategic advantages would be turned against us with deadly effect. It cannot long remain a province of Spain. That power is too poor to reject a fair price, and too weak to hold it against any of the leading powers of Europe. England, Germany and France are exhibiting a good deal of rapacity in the seizure of island territory, and would not be likely to show much respect for the Monroe doctrine if they or either of them should fix their greedy eyes upon it. If there is danger in the European quarter, the administration cannot be too quick in closing a bargain with Spain.

The purchase of Alaska and the benefits that have accrued from the possession of Texas and California, have made territorial acquisition a popular theme with a large majority of the people. If Cuba could be obtained upon favorable terms, there is no doubt that it would give a big boom to the administration. But the country should be given opportunity to consider well and carefully whether it wants the property or not. Certainly "Uncle Sam" has yet a good deal of land to spare, and Canada will soon be knocking at our doors.

ON THE ASSASSIN'S TRACK.

That Chicago inquest is getting down to the substance of the Cronin murder at last. Yesterday several important witnesses gave their testimony. P. McGary swore to conversations with Cronin in which the latter declared that he expected to be murdered, and that Alexander Sullivan would be the instigator of the crime. His last conversation was three weeks before the murder, when Cronin told him that proofs were in his safe which would connect Sullivan with the crime. Michael Barry swore that two years ago Cronin told him that detectives were tracking him with the view of ruining his character, and that if they failed in this they would resort to assassination. Lawrence Morris swore that ex-Congressman John F. Finerty told him that "those doctors must be got rid of," meaning Cronin and McCahey. He also related a conversation with Cronin in which the latter declared his expectation of murder. Joseph O'Berne swore that he had known Cronin many years, and that he conversed with him on the Friday before the murder. The doctor was low-spirited, expressed his fear of physical violence, and an inclination to stop the investigation that he had entered upon and let the rascals do their worst. O'Berne related a conversation with McGehan in December, in which he was told that Cronin and McCahey ought to be killed.

Byron L. Smith, receiver of the defunct Traders' bank, testified to Alexander Sullivan's transactions with that institution. On May 27, 1882, Sullivan deposited to his own credit $90,520. This corresponds with Cronin's accusation that Sullivan obtained $100,000 from the Clan-na-Gael fund in Paris, turned $18,000 over to the society in Chicago, and deposited the rest to his own credit. Mr. Smith testified that Sullivan drew this money out in checks of $30,000, $25,000, $5,000 and smaller amounts, and that $90,000 was paid to J. F. Lester & Co. No account is given of this firm, but it does not appear to have been the Clan-na-Gael society. It was this money that Cronin was endeavoring to trace and recover for the society when he was murdered.

Alexander Sullivan, it is to be remembered, is a murderer. He shot a school superintendent for removing his wife from a teacher's position, while his wife sat beside him in a carriage and witnessed the deed. If this wretch should be hunted down and hung for the murder of Cronin, it would seem a dispensation of providence like that which overtook Ruloff in Binghamton thirty years after he murdered his wife and child in Tompkins county.

HOW INTERNAL REVENUE GROWS.

The New York Sun finds that for the eleven months of the present fiscal year the receipts from the internal revenue tax have amounted to $119,939,363. If the past rate of collection is maintained during the present month, the receipts for the full year will be $130,842,941. Here then are the receipts for five years, the present included:

Fiscal year 1885	$112,421,121
Fiscal year 1886	116,902,869
Fiscal year 1887	118,837,301
Fiscal year 1888	124,326,475
Fiscal year 1889 (one month estimated)	130,842,941

The Sun mentions that the receipts from this tax for the last eleven months exceeded that of the corresponding eleven months of last year by $6,330,715. During the same period the receipts from customs increased only $5,948,323. The internal revenue tax is growing at the rate of more than 5½ per cent a year, while the gain from customs is less than three per cent. The internal revenue tax is now working more rapidly than the customs tariff to swell the surplus.

Our late Democratic Congress refused to touch the internal revenue system because it wanted to destroy the protective feature of the tariff. This is the reason why the planters of Virginia, North Carolina and other tobacco growing states are being crushed out by grinding taxation. It is the reason why the poor moonshiner in the Southern Alleghenies is hunted like a wild beast while trying to convert his little crop of corn into a commodity that he can carry on horseback to market. This is the reason why the great distilleries are able to hold a monopoly on the manufacture of spirits and beer and to contribute great wads of greenbacks to the Democratic campaign fund. This is the reason why the liquor trade is able to defeat high license in New York. Take off this tax, and the Legislatures of most of the states would quickly transfer it to their treasuries. In New York last year it amounted to $15,417,202.95, or more than the entire state tax and all the receipts from special taxes. A Republican Congress will take the first step towards placing this tax where it will help the people, instead of leaving it where it will swell a surplus that is a standing temptation to rogues and men of feeble integrity. The states will then claim and take it.

[From the Buffalo Express.]

No acquaintance of David B. Hill ever heeds what he says. What he does is the only test of what he believes.

The Governor, perhaps, made a slight tactical mistake in simultaneously vetoing the Vedder liquor tax bill and the Excise Commission measure. But, on the whole, that doesn't matter. The murder is out. Why mince matters? Gov. Hill has thrown off all disguise. Through force of habit he still temporizes in words. But his actions make it plain that he is as willing to be hanged for an old sheep as for a lamb.

No one need read a word of his veto-message. No self-respecting person will combat with his arguments of straw. The newspaper headlines—any newspaper headlines—tell the whole story. Gov. Hill will never approve a measure to restrict the liquor traffic in the slightest degree, and he doesn't care who knows it. He knows what he is "there for."

What does it matter to him that he writes self-stultification in every line of his latest deliverances? He is used to that too. He can veto the Vedder bill because it is not a temperance measure, and the Commission bill because it is a temperance measure, without a rhetorical blush. He can recognize the fact that both were framed to meet his views—and still strike them down.

Both vetoes are an almost incredible insult to the intelligent people of this state, only they are used to insults from that source. They are asked to believe that there is no public sentiment back of the Vedder measure, and that both bills are only political tricks. They will flatly refuse to believe the first assertion, and will reply to the second: "If it be so, Mr. Governor, that your political enemies don't want you to sign these bills, why do you comply with their wishes?"

Will any reformer ever pin an atom of faith to D. B. Hill again? We guess not. Temperance and ballot reform in this state will stand still until the Republican Legislature has been reinforced by a Republican Governor.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Compared with his father, young Allen W. Thurman of Ohio would seem to be peculiarly lacking in discretion.—New York Sun.

If we do have to go to war with England about the fur seals American wives and bachelors will have to do all the fighting You can't enthuse American married men on the subject of sealskins.—Boston Globe.

Governor Hill has not as yet referred to "The tax-payer and rent-payer and their relations to the liquor traffic." His anxiety is about "The liquor traffic and its relations to David B. Hill's political aspirations."—Albany Journal.

The gathering of cast-off garments for the flood sufferers, has developed the fact that of men's clothing there is a much greater supply to be had, than of female apparel. The reason ascribed is that a woman makes over her dresses when they get a little worn or unfashionable, so that as a rule, she has no cast-off clothing to give away.—Troy Telegram.

"You won't find malaria where there are rattlesnakes, but you will always find the home of this snake where there are the purest water, the freshest air and the dryest, highest land. That is why you always find trout streams and trout where there are rattlesnakes." Such was the rather startling declaration of a gentleman from Clinton county. He did not attempt to give any scientific explanation of the fact, but affirmed that it was a fact, all the same.—Philadelphia Press.

It is stated that Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, nee Endicott, is much disgusted with the freedom which pertains to conversation in what are considered the most select circles of English society. Her Puritan blood cannot stand certain features of dinner gossip popular in London. Not long ago she left the table of a noted peeress because of some remark which was made. The guests were astonished, but it is said that Queen Victoria thoroughly approves of Mrs. Chamberlain's course. Whatever the Queen may decree regarding court dress, she does not believe in having conversation cut decollete.—New York World.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they make her "feel like a different person," so they all say, and their husbands say so too!

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

Mailed secure from observation on receipt of $1.00 I also have a full line of elegant Toilet Goods, including Face Cream and Jellies, Wrinkle Paste Fattening Formula, Auburnine, Depilatory, Acnine, Freckle Lotion, etc. Development of a beautiful form a specialty. Sealed circulars, 4 cents.

AID FOR JOHNSTOWN.

THE FREEMAN has opened a subscription list in aid of the Johnstown sufferers, and a list of subscriptions received to-day is published on our fourth page. The heart of the nation is responding most generously, but the largest possible sum will be almost infinitesimally small in comparison with the loss sustained and the immediate needs of the desolated places. The gifts of those who feel the duty of giving (and who does not?) should be made quickly and as large as possible. In spite of the large sums of money and the great stores of supplies already forwarded, the destitution is becoming daily more apparent and the suffering greater. THE FREEMAN will receive and promptly acknowledge and forward all sums entrusted to it.

CUBA FOR THE UNITED STATES.

A rumor, started from Washington, is in circulation that Secretary Blaine is favorable to the purchase of Cuba, and that President Harrison is considering the advisabily of submitting the question to Congress. Cuba has been a country of great interest to the United States for many years, and shortly before his election to the Presidency James Buchanan, as the United States Minister to England, joined in the issue of the famous "Ostend Manifesto," which declared in effect that if Spain would not sell the Island the United States would be justified in seizing it. At that time it was eagerly desired by the South for the extension of the area of slavery. But the election of a Republican Congress in 1854 prevented the consummation, and the political strife and civil war that followed caused it to be forgotten. Even the Southern politicians permitted their attention to be diverted from it during Buchanan's administration by the struggle to seize Kansas for the slave power.

If the South has any special interest in the acquisition now, it is of a different character, for slavery has ceased to exist in Cuba as well as in the United States. The soil is fertile and a very large portion adapted to sugar growing, the only semi-tropical product of importance which we have not already the land to produce in sufficient quantities for the national supply. It is also a hot-bed of yellow fever and other tropical pestilences, which are quickly communicated to the Southern states, while it is too poor and the people too lacking in enterprise to adopt effective sanitary measures. If there is really a desire on the part of the administration to buy the Island, it is with the object first of all to put a boycott on the yellow fever crop. We understand that this is especially Mr. Blaine's view and wish.

As a strategic point it would be of great value to the United States in a war with any foreign power, for it commands the entrance to the Gulf of Mexico. If that war should occur with a nation in possession of the island, its strategic advantages would be turned against us with deadly effect. It cannot long remain a province of Spain. That power is too poor to reject a fair price, and too weak to hold it against any of the leading powers of Europe. England, Germany and France are exhibiting a good deal of rapacity in the seizure of island territory, and would not be likely to show much respect for the Monroe doctrine if they or either of them should fix their greedy eyes upon it. If there is danger in the European quarter, the administration cannot be too quick in closing a bargain with Spain.

The purchase of Alaska and the benefits that have accrued from the possession of Texas and California, have made territorial acquisition a popular theme with a large majority of the people. If Cuba could be obtained upon favorable terms, there is no doubt that it would give a big boom to the administration. But the country should be given opportunity to consider well and carefully whether it wants the property or not. Certainly "Uncle Sam" has yet a good deal of land to spare, and Canada will soon be knocking at our doors.

ON THE ASSASSIN'S TRACK.

That Chicago inquest is getting down to the substance of the Cronin murder at last. Yesterday several important witnesses gave their testimony. P. McGary swore to conversations with Cronin in which the latter declared that he expected to be murdered, and that Alexander Sullivan would be the instigator of the crime. His last conversation was three weeks before the murder, when Cronin told him that proofs were in his safe which would connect Sullivan with the crime. Michael Barry swore that two years ago Cronin told him that detectives were tracking him with the view of ruining his character, and that if they failed in this they would resort to assassination. Lawrence Morris swore that ex-Congressman John F. Finerty told him that "those doctors must be got rid of," meaning Cronin and McCahey. He also related a conversation with Cronin in which the latter declared his expectation of murder. Joseph O'Berne swore that he had known Cronin many years, and that he conversed with him on the Friday before the murder. The doctor was low-spirited, expressed his fear of physical violence, and an inclination to stop the investigation that he had entered upon and let the rascals do their worst. O'Berne related a conversation with McGehan in December, in which he was told that Cronin and McCahey ought to be killed.

Byron L. Smith, receiver of the defunct Traders' bank, testified to Alexander Sullivan's transactions with that institution. On May 27, 1882, Sullivan deposited to his own credit $90,520. This corresponds with Cronin's accusation that Sullivan obtained $100,000 from the Clan-na-Gael fund in Paris, turned $18,000 over to the society in Chicago, and deposited the rest to his own credit. Mr. Smith testified that Sullivan drew this money out in checks of $30,000, $25,000, $5,000 and smaller amounts, and that $90,000 was paid to J. F. Lester & Co. No account is given of this firm, but it does not appear to have been the Clan-na-Gael society. It was this money that Cronin was endeavoring to trace and recover for the society when he was murdered.

Alexander Sullivan, it is to be remembered, is a murderer. He shot a school superintendent for removing his wife from a teacher's position, while his wife sat beside him in a carriage and witnessed the deed. If this wretch should be hunted down and hung for the murder of Cronin, it would seem a dispensation of providence like that which overtook Ruloff in Binghamton thirty years after he murdered his wife and child in Tompkins county.

HOW INTERNAL REVENUE GROWS.

The New York Sun finds that for the eleven months of the present fiscal year the receipts from the internal revenue tax have amounted to $119,939,363. If the past rate of collection is maintained during the present month, the receipts for the full year will be $130,842,941. Here then are the receipts for five years, the present included:

Fiscal year 1885	$112,421,121
Fiscal year 1886	116,902,869
Fiscal year 1887	118,837,301
Fiscal year 1888	124,326,475
Fiscal year 1889 (one month estimated)	130,842,941

The Sun mentions that the receipts from this tax for the last eleven months exceeded that of the corresponding eleven months of last year by $6,330,715. During the same period the receipts from customs increased only $5,948,323. The internal revenue tax is growing at the rate of more than 5½ per cent a year, while the gain from customs is less than three per cent. The internal revenue tax is now working more rapidly than the customs tariff to swell the surplus.

Our late Democratic Congress refused to touch the internal revenue system because it wanted to destroy the protective feature of the tariff. This is the reason why the planters of Virginia, North Carolina and other tobacco growing states are being crushed out by grinding taxation. It is the reason why the poor moonshiner in the Southern Alleghenies is hunted like a wild beast while trying to convert his little crop of corn into a commodity that he can carry on horseback to market. This is the reason why the great distilleries are able to hold a monopoly on the manufacture of spirits and beer and to contribute great wads of greenbacks to the Democratic campaign fund. This is the reason why the liquor trade is able to defeat high license in New York. Take off this tax, and the Legislatures of most of the states would quickly transfer it to their treasuries. In New York last year it amounted to $15,417,202.95, or more than the entire state tax and all the receipts from special taxes. A Republican Congress will take the first step towards placing this tax where it will help the people, instead of leaving it where it will swell a surplus that is a standing temptation to rogues and men of feeble integrity. The states will then claim and take it.

HILL'S VETOES.

A Merciless But Truthful Criticism—The People Insulted.

[From the Buffalo Express.]

No acquaintance of David B. Hill ever heeds what he says. What he does is the only test of what he believes.

The Governor, perhaps, made a slight tactical mistake in simultaneously vetoing the Vedder liquor tax bill and the Excise Commission measure. But, on the whole, that doesn't matter. The murder is out. Why mince matters? Gov. Hill has thrown off all disguise. Through force of habit he still temporizes in words. But his actions make it plain that he is as willing to be hanged for an old sheep as for a lamb.

No one need read a word of his veto-message. No self-respecting person will combat with his arguments of straw. The newspaper headlines—any newspaper headlines—tell the whole story. Gov. Hill will never approve a measure to restrict the liquor traffic in the slightest degree, and he doesn't care who knows it. He knows what he is "there for."

What does it matter to him that he writes self-stultification in every line of his latest deliverances? He is used to that too. He can veto the Vedder bill because it is not a temperance measure, and the Commission bill because it is a temperance measure, without a rhetorical blush. He can recognize the fact that both were framed to meet his views—and still strike them down.

Both vetoes are an almost incredible insult to the intelligent people of this state, only they are used to insults from that source. They are asked to believe that there is no public sentiment back of the Vedder measure, and that both bills are only political tricks. They will flatly refuse to believe the first assertion, and will reply to the second: "If it be so, Mr. Governor, that your political enemies don't want you to sign these bills, why do you comply with their wishes?"

Will any reformer ever pin an atom of faith to D. B. Hill again? We guess not. Temperance and ballot reform in this state will stand still until the Republican Legislature has been reinforced by a Republican Governor.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Compared with his father, young Allen W. Thurman of Ohio would seem to be peculiarly lacking in discretion.—New York Sun.

If we do have to go to war with England about the fur seals American wives and bachelors will have to do all the fighting You can't enthuse American married men on the subject of sealskins.—Boston Globe.

Governor Hill has not as yet referred to "The tax-payer and rent-payer and their relations to the liquor traffic." His anxiety is about "The liquor traffic and its relations to David B. Hill's political aspirations."—Albany Journal.

The gathering of cast-off garments for the flood sufferers, has developed the fact that of men's clothing there is a much greater supply to be had, than of female apparel. The reason ascribed is that a woman makes over her dresses when they get a little worn or unfashionable, so that as a rule, she has no cast-off clothing to give away.—Troy Telegram.

"You won't find malaria where there are rattlesnakes, but you will always find the home of this snake where there are the purest water, the freshest air and the dryest, highest land. That is why you always find trout streams and trout where there are rattlesnakes." Such was the rather startling declaration of a gentleman from Clinton county. He did not attempt to give any scientific explanation of the fact, but affirmed that it was a fact, all the same.—Philadelphia Press.

It is stated that Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, nee Endicott, is much disgusted with the freedom which pertains to conversation in what are considered the most select circles of English society. Her Puritan blood cannot stand certain features of dinner gossip popular in London. Not long ago she left the table of a noted peeress because of some remark which was made. The guests were astonished, but it is said that Queen Victoria thoroughly approves of Mrs. Chamberlain's course. Whatever the Queen may decree regarding court dress, she does not believe in having conversation cut decollete.—New York World.

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

Mailed secure from observation on receipt of $1.00 I also have a full line of elegant Toilet Goods, including Face Cream and Jellies, Wrinkle Paste Fattening Formula, Auburnine, Depilatory, Acnine, Freckle Lotion, etc. Development of a beautiful form a specialty. Sealed circulars, 4 cents.

AID FOR JOHNSTOWN.

THE FREEMAN has opened a subscription list in aid of the Johnstown sufferers, and a list of subscriptions received to-day is published on our fourth page. The heart of the nation is responding most generously, but the largest possible sum will be almost infinitesimally small in comparison with the loss sustained and the immediate needs of the desolated places. The gifts of those who feel the duty of giving (and who does not?) should be made quickly and as large as possible. In spite of the large sums of money and the great stores of supplies already forwarded, the destitution is becoming daily more apparent and the suffering greater. THE FREEMAN will receive and promptly acknowledge and forward all sums entrusted to it.

CUBA FOR THE UNITED STATES.

A rumor, started from Washington, is in circulation that Secretary Blaine is favorable to the purchase of Cuba, and that President Harrison is considering the advisabily of submitting the question to Congress. Cuba has been a country of great interest to the United States for many years, and shortly before his election to the Presidency James Buchanan, as the United States Minister to Eng'and, joined in the issue of the famous "Ostend Manifesto," which declared in effect that if Spain would not sell the Island the United States would be justified in seizing it. At that time it was eagerly desired by the South for the extension of the area of slavery. But the election of a Republican Congress in 1854 prevented the consummation, and the political strife and civil war that followed caused it to be forgotten. Even the Southern politicians permitted their attention to be diverted from it during Buchanan's administration by the struggle to seize Kansas for the slave power.

If the South has any special interest in the acquisition now, it is of a different character, for slavery has ceased to exist in Cuba as well as in the United States. The soil is fertile and a very large portion adapted to sugar growing, the only semi-tropical product of importance which we have not already the land to produce in sufficient quantities for the national supply. It is also a hot-bed of yellow fever and other tropical pestilences, which are quickly communicated to the Southern states, while it is too poor and the people too lacking in enterprise to adopt effective sanitary measures. If there is really a desire on the part of the administration to buy the Island, it is with the object first of all to put a boycott on the yellow fever crop. We understand that this is especially Mr. Blaine's view and wish.

As a strategic point it would be of great value to the United States in a war with any foreign power, for it commands the entrance to the Gulf of Mexico. If that war should occur with a nation in possession of the island, its strategic advantages would be turned against us with deadly effect. It cannot long remain a province of Spain. That power is too poor to reject a fair price, and too weak to hold it against any of the leading powers of Europe. England, Germany and France are exhibiting a good deal of rapacity in the seizure of island territory, and would not be likely to show much respect for the Monroe doctrine if they or either of them should fix their greedy eyes upon it. If there is danger in the European quarter, the administration cannot be too quick in closing a bargain with Spain.

The purchase of Alaska and the benefits that have accrued from the possession of Texas and California, have made territorial acquisition a popular theme with a large majority of the people. If Cuba could be obtained upon favorable terms, there is no doubt that it would give a big boom to the administration. But the country should be given opportunity to consider well and carefully whether it wants the property or not. Certainly "Uncle Sam" has yet a good deal of land to spare, and Canada will soon be knocking at our doors.

ON THE ASSASSIN'S TRACK.

That Chicago inquest is getting down to the substance of the Cronin murder at last. Yesterday several important witnesses gave their testimony. P. McGary swore to conversations with Cronin in which the latter declared that he expected to be murdered, and that Alexander Sullivan would be the instigator of the crime. His last conversation was three weeks before the murder, when Cronin told him that proofs were in his safe which would connect Sullivan with the crime. Michael Barry swore that two years ago Cronin told him that detectives were tracking him with the view of ruining his character, and that if they failed in this they would resort to assassination. Lawrence Morris swore that ex-Congressman John F. Finerty told him that "those doctors must be got rid of," meaning Cronin and McCahey. He also related a conversation with Cronin in which the latter declared his expectation of murder. Joseph O'Berne swore that he had known Cronin many years, and that he conversed with him on the Friday before the murder. The doctor was low-spirited, expressed his fear of physical violence, and an inclination to stop the investigation that he had entered upon and let the rascals do their worst. O'Berne related a conversation with McGehan in December, in which he was told that Cronin and McCahey ought to be killed.

Byron L. Smith, receiver of the defunct Traders' bank, testified to Alexander Sullivan's transactions with that institution. On May 27, 1882, Sullivan deposited to his own credit $90,520. This corresponds with Cronin's accusation that Sullivan obtained $100,000 from the Clan-na-Gael fund in Paris, turned $18,000 over to the society in Chicago, and deposited the rest to his own credit. Mr. Smith testified that Sullivan drew this money out in checks of $30,000, $25,000, $5,000 and smaller amounts, and that $90,000 was paid to J. F. Lester & Co. No account is given of this firm, but it does not appear to have been the Clan-na-Gael society. It was this money that Cronin was endeavoring to trace and recover for the society when he was murdered.

Alexander Sullivan, it is to be remembered, is a murderer. He shot a school superintendent for removing his wife from a teacher's position, while his wife sat beside him in a carriage and witnessed the deed. If this wretch should be hunted down and hung for the murder of Cronin, it would seem a dispensation of providence like that which overtook Ruloff in Binghamton thirty years after he murdered his wife and child in Tompkins county.

HOW INTERNAL REVENUE GROWS.

The New York Sun finds that for the eleven months of the present fiscal year the receipts from the internal revenue tax have amounted to $119,939,363. If the past rate of collection is maintained during the present month, the receipts for the full year will be $130,842,941. Here then are the receipts for five years, the present included:

Fiscal year 1885	$112,421,121
Fiscal year 1886	116,902,869
Fiscal year 1887	118,837,301
Fiscal year 1888	124,326,475
Fiscal year 1889 (one month estimated)	130,842,941

The Sun mentions that the receipts from this tax for the last eleven months exceeded that of the corresponding eleven months of last year by $6,330,715. During the same period the receipts from customs increased only $5,948,323. The internal revenue tax is growing at the rate of more than 5½ per cent a year, while the gain from customs is less than three per cent. The internal revenue tax is now working more rapidly than the customs tariff to swell the surplus.

Our late Democratic Congress refused to touch the internal revenue system because it wanted to destroy the protective feature of the tariff. This is the reason why the planters of Virginia, North Carolina and other tobacco growing states are being crushed out by grinding taxation. It is the reason why the poor moonshiner in the Southern Alleghenies is hunted like a wild beast while trying to convert his little crop of corn into a commodity that he can carry on horseback to market. This is the reason why the great distilleries are able to hold a monopoly on the manufacture of spirits and beer and to contribute great wads of greenbacks to the Democratic campaign fund. This is the reason why the liquor trade is able to defeat high license in New York. Take off this tax, and the Legislatures of most of the states would quickly transfer it to their treasuries. In New York last year it amounted to $15,417,202.95, or more than the entire state tax and all the receipts from special taxes. A Republican Congress will take the first step towards placing this tax where it will help the people, instead of leaving it where it will swell a surplus that is a standing temptation to rogues and men of feeble integrity. The states will then claim and take it.

HILL'S VETOES.

A Merciless But Truthful Criticism—The People Insulted.

[From the Buffalo Express.]

No acquaintance of David B. Hill ever heeds what he says. What he does is the only test of what he believes.

The Governor, perhaps, made a slight tactical mistake in simultaneously vetoing the Vedder liquor tax bill and the Excise Commission measure. But, on the whole, that doesn't matter. The murder is out. Why mince matters? Gov. Hill has thrown off all disguise. Through force of habit he still temporizes in words. But his actions make it plain that he is as willing to be hanged for an old sheep as for a lamb.

No one need read a word of his veto-message. No self-respecting person will combat with his arguments of straw. The newspaper headlines—any newspaper headlines—tell the whole story. Gov. Hill will never approve a measure to restrict the liquor traffic in the slightest degree, and he doesn't care who knows it. He knows what he is "there for."

What does it matter to him that he writes self-stultification in every line of his latest deliverances? He is used to that too. He can veto the Vedder bill because it is not a temperance measure, and the Commission bill because it is a temperance measure, without a rhetorical blush. He can recognize the fact that both were framed to meet his views—and still strike them down.

Both vetoes are an almost incredible insult to the intelligent people of this state, only they are used to insults from that source. They are asked to believe that there is no public sentiment back of the Vedder measure, and that both bills are only political tricks. They will flatly refuse to believe the first assertion, and will reply to the second: "If it be so, Mr. Governor, that your political enemies don't want you to sign these bills, why do you comply with their wishes?"

Will any reformer ever pin an atom of faith to D. B. Hill again? We guess not. Temperance and ballot reform in this state will stand still until the Republican Legislature has been reinforced by a Republican Governor.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Compared with his father, young Allen W. Thurman of Ohio would seem to be peculiarly lacking in discretion.—New York Sun.

If we do have to go to war with England about the fur seals American wives and bachelors will have to do all the fighting You can't enthuse American married men on the subject of sealskins.—Boston Globe.

Governor Hill has not as yet referred to "The tax-payer and rent-payer and their relations to the liquor traffic." His anxiety is about "The liquor traffic and its relations to David B. Hill's political aspirations."—Albany Journal.

The gathering of cast-off garments for the flood sufferers, has developed the fact that of men's clothing there is a much greater supply to be had, than of female apparel. The reason ascribed is that a woman makes over her dresses when they get a little worn or unfashionable, so that as a rule, she has no cast-off clothing to give away.—Troy Telegram.

"You won't find malaria where there are rattlesnakes, but you will always find the home of this snake where there are the purest water, the freshest air and the dryest, highest land. That is why you always find trout streams and trout where there are rattlesnakes." Such was the rather startling declaration of a gentleman from Clinton county. He did not attempt to give any scientific explanation of the fact, but affirmed that it was a fact, all the same.—Philadelphia Press.

It is stated that Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, nee Endicott, is much disgusted with the freedom which pertains to conversation in what are considered the most select circles of English society. Her Puritan blood cannot stand certain features of dinner gossip popular in London. Not long ago she left the table of a noted peeress because of some remark which was made. The guests were astonished, but it is said that Queen Victoria thoroughly approves of Mrs. Chamberlain's course. Whatever the Queen may decree regarding court dress, she does not believe in having conversation cut decollete.—New York World.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

A Tourist Killed in the Alps—Atrocities in Armenia—Movements of the Shah of Persia—The United States Government, Germany and Samoa.

French Judges have just decided a most extraordinary will case. A Frenchman of wealth named Travers had conceived an intense hatred for his country. When he died, five years ago, he willed his property to "the poor of London" after these words: "I have always been oppressed in my native land. I have arrived at the age of 45, and have never been my own master. Horrible nation! People of cowards and blockheads! I should like to have milliards to give to the English, who are the born enemies of this idiotic France. This is clear and to the point." The relatives of M. Travers naturally disputed this will on the ground that the testator was not of sound mind, and that the will, being framed in hatred of France, was contrary to "public order," and, lastly, that it could not be carried out in England, as there was no legal representative of the poor. But the Court overruled all these objections, and the appeal subsequently made has just been rejected.

The Governor of Van in Armenia has recently issued a decree against the breviary which Gregorian and Catholic Armenians have used in their schools for more than a thousand years, the only difference between the Gregorian and Catholic versions being that in the former the name Catholicos is substituted for that of Pope, used in the latter The Governor's reason was that the teaching of the breviary was opposed to Ottoman national principles, some of the saints mentioned in it having been kings of Armenia, and also foreign kings. Both the Catholic and Gregorian Patriarchs have seen the Grand Vizier at Constantinople in behalf of their people, but as yet in vain.

A Vienna jeweller has received an order from a ladies' committee in Belgrade, headed by the wife of General Lyeshanine, for a wreath of gold leaves encircling a portrait of the Servian King Alexander. The wreath is to be set in diamonds, and is intended as a present for Queen Natalie. The ribbons will bear the inscription, "In Memory of March 6, 1889," this being the date of King Alexander's accession. The value of the present will be 20,000 francs.

Lord Bute is having the ancient palace of Falkland in Fifeshire, Scotland, carefully renovated and restored, and extensive excavations are in progress which have resulted in the uncovering of the foundations of the historic castle of Macduff, Thane of the kingdom of Fife, and of the dungeon in which the Duke of Rothesay was starved to death.

A Bloody Affray.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PURCELL, I. T., June 6.—For a week several Deputy Marshals of Purcell have been on the trail of Cornelius Walker, a notorious negro horse thief of Indian Territory. Yesterday the Marshals corraled Walker in a Negro hut 30 miles west of Pauls Valley, in the Chickasaw Nation. Upon going to the door Deputy Marshal Williams was held up by Robert and Clem Franklin, while Walker shot him and killed him. Walker was shot by the other Marshals and the Franklin brothers were arrested and brought to Paul's Valley station where they were chained until taken to Paris, Texas, for trial.

General Railroad News.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will replace many of its iron bridges which have been destroyed with stone viaducts. The fact that the Johnstown bridge, which is of stone, stood the immense strain bearing on it, is taken only as additional proof of the desirability of such bridges.

The Death Record.

The Bishop of Strengnas, Dr. Adam Theodor Stromberg, who died recently, was a distinguished Swedish poet. Born at Strengnas June 5, 1820, he gained the gold medal of the Swedish Academy in 1852 by his first volume of poems, published his "Holofzin" in 1857, and his "Balder's Feast" a few years later. He was made Bishop of Strengnas in 1881. He was also, as is possible for a prelate in Sweden, an active politician, and from 1876 to 1878 was a leader of the House in the Riksdag.

The well-known Russian poet and statist, Michael Saltykoff, died recently in St. Petersburg of paralysis. He was one of those unfortunate Russian authors whose best work has probably been suppressed by the authorities. He once published one of the stupidest pieces of nonsense that ever appeared in print, and explained that this was a specimen of the only kind of stuff that the censors would permit him to publish.

Lucy Helena Baynes, better known in Calcutta as "Sister Lucy," is dead. She was trained in the Clewer House of Mercy, and went out from England in 1881 to take the superintendence of the Lady Canning Memorial Home, an institution in which native women are trained as nurses. She was one of the pioneers of the movement for supplying medical aid to Indian women.

AMENDMENT TO STATE CONSTITUTION.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

Proposing an amendment to article six of the Constitution relating to election of additional Justices of the Supreme Court.

Resolved, [If the Senate concur] That the Sixth Article of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following section:

Section 29. The Legislature at the first session thereof, after the adoption of this amendment, shall provide for the election at the general election next after the adoption of this amendment, by the Electors of the first and second judicial districts of not more than two Justices of the Supreme Court in addition to the justices of that court now in office in each of said judicial districts and one justice of said court in addition to the justices of that court now authorized by law to be elected in each of the following judicial districts, namely: The third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth judicial districts. The justice so elected shall be invested with their office on the first Monday of January next after their election.

Resolved, [If the Senate concur] That the foregoing amendment be referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators, and that in conformity to section one article thirteen of the Constitution it be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

STATE OF NEW-YORK,
In Assembly, April 19, 1889.

The foregoing resolution was duly passed.
By order of the Assembly,
C. A. CHICKERING, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW-YORK,
In Senate, May 15, 1889.

The foregoing resolution was duly passed.
By order of the Senate,
JNO. S. KENYON, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, Office of Secretary of State, ss:

I have compared the preceding copy of Concurrent Resolution, proposing an amendment to the Constitution, with the original Concurrent Resolution on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole thereof. [Published pursuant to article thirteen of the State Constitution, and chapter sixty, Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty, in two public newspapers in each county, in said State, representing respectively the two rival political parties polling the highest number of votes at the last general election.]

[L. S.] Given under my hand and the seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the City of Albany, this third day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

FREDERICK COOK,
Secretary of State.

THE PRINCIPAL NEWS OF LAST NIGHT AND THIS FORENOON.

A Tourist Killed in the Alps—Atrocities in Armenia—Movements of the Shah of Persia—The United States Government, Germany and Samoa.

French Judges have just decided a most extraordinary will case. A Frenchman of wealth named Travers had conceived an intense hatred for his country. When he died, five years ago, he willed his property to "the poor of London" after these words: "I have always been oppressed in my native land. I have arrived at the age of 45, and have never been my own master. Horrible nation! People of cowards and blockheads! I should like to have milliards to give to the English, who are the born enemies of this idiotic France. This is clear and to the point." The relatives of M. Travers naturally disputed this will on the ground that the testator was not of sound mind, and that the will, being framed in hatred of France, was contrary to "public order," and, lastly, that it could not be carried out in England, as there was no legal representative of the poor. But the Court overruled all these objections, and the appeal subsequently made has just been rejected.

The Governor of Van in Armenia has recently issued a decree against the breviary which Gregorian and Catholic Armenians have used in their schools for more than a thousand years, the only difference between the Gregorian and Catholic versions being that in the former the name Catholicos is substituted for that of Pope, used in the latter. The Governor's reason was that the teaching of the breviary was opposed to Ottoman national principles, some of the saints mentioned in it having been kings of Armenia, and also foreign kings. Both the Catholic and Gregorian Patriarchs have seen the Grand Vizier at Constantinople in behalf of their people, but as yet in vain.

A Vienna jeweller has received an order from a ladies' committee in Belgrade, headed by the wife of General Lyeshanine, for a wreath of gold leaves encircling a portrait of the Servian King Alexander. The wreath is to be set in diamonds, and is intended as a present for Queen Natalie. The ribbons will bear the inscription, "In Memory of March 6, 1889," this being the date of King Alexander's accession. The value of the present will be 20,000 francs.

Lord Bute is having the ancient palace of Falkland in Fifeshire, Scotland, carefully renovated and restored, and extensive excavations are in progress which have resulted in the uncovering of the foundations of the historic castle of Macduff, Thane of the kingdom of Fife, and of the dungeon in which the Duke of Rothesay was starved to death.

PURCELL, I. T., June 6.—For a week several Deputy Marshals of Purcell have been on the trail of Cornelius Walker, a notorious negro horse thief of Indian Territory. Yesterday the Marshals corraled Walker in a Negro hut 30 miles west of Pauls Valley, in the Chickasaw Nation. Upon going to the door Deputy Marshal Williams was held up by Robert and Clem Franklin, while Walker shot him and killed him. Walker was shot by the other Marshals and the Franklin brothers were arrested and brought to Paul's Valley station where they were chained until taken to Paris, Texas, for trial.

General Railroad News.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will replace many of its iron bridges which have been destroyed with stone viaducts. The fact that the Johnstown bridge, which is of stone, stood the immense strain bearing on it, is taken only as additional proof of the desirability of such bridges.

The Death Record.

The Bishop of Strengnas, Dr. Adam Theodor Stromberg, who died recently, was a distinguished Swedish poet. Born at Strengnas June 5, 1820, he gained the gold medal of the Swedish Academy in 1852 by his first volume of poems, published his "Holofzin" in 1857, and his "Balder's Feast" a few years later. He was made Bishop of Strengnas in 1881. He was also, as is possible for a prelate in Sweden, an active politician, and from 1876 to 1878 was a leader of the House in the Riksdag.

The well-known Russian poet and statist, Michael Saltykoff, died recently in St. Petersburg of paralysis. He was one of those unfortunate Russian authors whose best work has probably been suppressed by the authorities. He once published one of the stupidest pieces of nonsense that ever appeared in print, and explained that this was a specimen of the only kind of stuff that the censors would permit him to publish.

Lucy Helena Baynes, better known in Calcutta as "Sister Lucy," is dead. She was trained in the Clewer House of Mercy, and went out from England in 1881 to take the superintendence of the Lady Canning Memorial Home, an institution in which native women are trained as nurses. She was one of the pioneers of the movement for supplying medical aid to Indian women.

Dr. Samuel G. Lane, widely known in medical circles throughout Pennsylvania, died of apoplexy in Chambersburg on Tuesday in his sixty-third year.

Rodney Churchill died at his home in Saratoga on Monday, aged nearly 70 years.

Cows Turned Loose in the Streets.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

FORT DODGE, Ia., June 6.—The excitement occasioned in this City by the action of the City Council Monday evening in authorizing all owners of milch cows to turn the animals loose within the City limits, reached fever heat yesterday when leading ladies announced that a systematic boycott would be instituted at once against all merchants holding any business relations with the offending Councilmen. Two-thirds of the women of the City have pledged themselves not to buy a cent's worth from any offending merchant.

News on the East and West Banks of the Hudson and Inland.

The Board of Supervisors of Westchester County held a special meeting at White Plains yesterday for the purpose of hearing an application from the Kensico Cemetery Association to convert 250 acres in the town of Mount Pleasant, near Kensico village, into a cemetery. The Board gave the company the permission asked for. The salary of the Surrogate's Clerk was fixed at $2,000. The Board was served with an injunction issued by Justice Dykman on the petition of taxpayers of the town of East Chester, restraining it from granting a warrant for the collection of about $20,000 extra tax in the town for the purpose of working the roads.

The New-Rochelle authorities intend to make great improvements on their streets and make property owners see that their buildings do not encroach upon the highways, also that all sidewalks shall be laid at a uniform grade, whereas at present every property owner has apparently set a grade to suit himself. The Trustees are about to give out contracts for a thorough system of sewers through the village.

George Downs, who killed James Logan in South-Troy, last December, was this morning in Troy found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree and sentenced by Justice Mayham to 15 years and nine months at hard labor in Clinton Prison. Downs said he found Logan assaulting Mrs. Downs and shot him through the heart.

The peculiar purifying and building up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla make it the very best medicine to take at this season.

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over 10 years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep—had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the one medicine above all others made to cure catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

AMENDMENT TO STATE CONSTITUTION.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

Proposing an amendment to article six of the Constitution relating to election of additional Justices of the Supreme Court.

Resolved, [If the Senate concur] That the Sixth Article of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following section:

Section 29. The Legislature at the first session thereof, after the adoption of this amendment, shall provide for the election at the general election next after the adoption of this amendment, by the Electors of the first and second judicial districts of not more than two Justices of the Supreme Court in addition to the justices of that court now in office in each of said judicial districts and one justice of said court in addition to the justices of that court now authorized by law to be elected in each of the following judicial districts, namely: The third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth judicial districts. The justice so elected shall be invested with their office on the first Monday of January next after their election.

Resolved, [If the Senate concur] That the foregoing amendment be referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators, and that in conformity to section one article thirteen of the Constitution it be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, In Assembly, April 19, 1889.

The foregoing resolution was duly passed.

By order of the Assembly,
C. A. CHICKERING, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, In Senate, May 15, 1889.

The foregoing resolution was duly passed.

By order of the Senate,
JNO. S. KENYON, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, Office of Secretary of State, } ss:

THE WORLD IN MINIATURE.

THE PRINCIPAL NEWS OF LAST NIGHT AND THIS FORENOON.

A Tourist Killed in the Alps—Atrocities in Armenia—Movements of the Shah of Persia—The United States Government, Germany and Samoa.

French Judges have just decided a most extraordinary will case. A Frenchman of wealth named Travers had conceived an intense hatred for his country. When he died, five years ago, he willed his property to "the poor of London" after these words: "I have always been oppressed in my native land. I have arrived at the age of 45, and have never been my own master. Horrible nation! People of cowards and blockheads! I should like to have milliards to give to the English, who are the born enemies of this idiotic France. This is clear and to the point." The relatives of M. Travers naturally disputed this will on the ground that the testator was not of sound mind, and that the will, being framed in hatred of France, was contrary to "public order," and, lastly, that it could not be carried out in England, as there was no legal representative of the poor. But the Court overruled all these objections, and the appeal subsequently made has just been rejected.

The Governor of Van in Armenia has recently issued a decree against the breviary which Gregorian and Catholic Armenians have used in their schools for more than a thousand years, the only difference between the Gregorian and Catholic versions being that in the former the name Catholicos is substituted for that of Pope, used in the latter. The Governor's reason was that the teaching of the breviary was opposed to Ottoman national principles, some of the saints mentioned in it having been kings of Armenia, and also foreign kings. Both the Catholic and Gregorian Patriarchs have seen the Grand Vizier at Constantinople in behalf of their people, but as yet in vain.

A Vienna jeweller has received an order from a ladies' committee in Belgrade, headed by the wife of General Lyeshanine, for a wreath of gold leaves encircling a portrait of the Servian King Alexander. The wreath is to be set in diamonds, and is intended as a present for Queen Natalie. The ribbons will bear the inscription, "In Memory of March 6, 1889," this being the date of King Alexander's accession. The value of the present will be 20,000 francs.

Lord Bute is having the ancient palace of Falkland in Fifeshire, Scotland, carefully renovated and restored, and extensive excavations are in progress which have resulted in the uncovering of the foundations of the historic castle of Macduff, Thane of the kingdom of Fife, and of the dungeon in which the Duke of Rothesay was starved to death.

The Death Record.

The Bishop of Strengnas, Dr. Adam Theodor Stromberg, who died recently, was a distinguished Swedish poet. Born at Strengnas June 5, 1820, he gained the gold medal of the Swedish Academy in 1852 by his first volume of poems, published his "Holofzin" in 1857, and his "Balder's Feast" a few years later. He was made Bishop of Strengnas in 1881. He was also, as is possible for a prelate in Sweden, an active politician, and from 1876 to 1878 was a leader of the House in the Riksdag.

The well-known Russian poet and statist, Michael Saltykoff, died recently in St. Petersburg of paralysis. He was one of those unfortunate Russian authors whose best work has probably been suppressed by the authorities. He once published one of the stupidest pieces of nonsense that ever appeared in print, and explained that this was a specimen of the only kind of stuff that the censors would permit him to publish.

Lucy Helena Baynes, better known in Calcutta as "Sister Lucy," is dead. She was trained in the Clewer House of Mercy, and went out from England in 1881 to take the superintendence of the Lady Canning Memorial Home, an institution in which native women are trained as nurses. The peculiar purifying and building up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla make it the very best medicine to take at this season.

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over 10 years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep—had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the one medicine above all others made to cure catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. AMENDMENT TO STATE CONSTITUTION.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

Proposing an amendment to article six of the Constitution relating to election of additional Justices of the Supreme Court.

Resolved, [If the Senate concur] That the Sixth Article of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following section:

Section 29. The Legislature at the first session thereof, after the adoption of this amendment, shall provide for the election at the general election next after the adoption of this amendment, by the Electors of the first and second judicial districts of not more than two Justices of the Supreme Court in addition to the justices of that court now in office in each of said judicial districts and one justice of said court in addition to the justices of that court now authorized by law to be elected in each of the following judicial districts, namely: The third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth judicial districts. The justice so elected shall be invested with their office on the first Monday of January next after their election.

Resolved, [If the Senate concur] That the foregoing amendment be referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators, and that in conformity to section one article thirteen of the Constitution it be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

Society Matters.

Ulster County Lodge, No. 29, I. O. of G. T., met in quarterly session at Good Templars Hall, Bloomingdale, yesterday. C. C. T. Griffiths, of Olive Lodge, presided. P. A. Schryver was recommended to the Grand Lodge for the position of County Deputy for the ensuing year. Mr. Schryver was also elected as Representative to the Grand Lodge, and J. Cowles, of Accord, was elected as Alternate. At noon a collation, prepared by the ladies of the local lodge, was partaken of by over 50 delegates and honorary members. The Lodge adjourned to meet again on the first Wednesday in September at St. Remy.

The following have been elected officers of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons of the State of New York:

John W. Vrooman, of Herkimer, Grand Master; William Sherer, Brooklyn, Deputy Grand Master; James TenEyck, Senior Grand Warden; John Hodge, Lockport, Junior Grand Warden; Judge John J. Gorman, Grand Treasurer; Edward M. L. Ehlers, Grand Secretary; Edward B. Hopper, Trustee of the Hall and Asylum Fund. The newly elected Grand Master will appoint 29 District Deputy Grand Masters.

The annual election of officers of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the State of New-York will be held by each subordinate lodge of the Order at its second regular meeting in June. None but Past Grands are allowed to vote.

Two Close Calls on the Railroad Track.

Fritz Engle, of New-York City, while walking on the West Shore railroad track yesterday, near Marlborough, was struck by an express train and thrown 20 feet. He escaped with a broken arm. Engel was taken to the Newburgh almshouse, where his arm was set. A dinner was furnished him, of which he partook with a relish and with a free pass two hours later he was enjoying a trip to New-York as a passenger on the same road over which he had footed it the day before.

An unknown man, whose appearance gave evidence of intoxication, had a narrow escape from being killed at the lower Hasbrouck-avenue crossing of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad last evening. The man was noticed on the track, and though the engine's whistle was blown and the bell rung he made no effort to leave the rails. He was caught by the pilot and tossed. The engine was stopped and it was supposed the man was killed but he arose to his feet and solemnly walked away, much to the relief of the engine-driver and others who noticed the occurrence.

As Related by Two Officers Here.

One day recently Officers Barry and Sullivan were in the woods over the Newark Lime & Cement Company's quarries looking for a man for whom they had a warrant. While "beating the bush" the officers saw something that made them grasp their clubs and feel if their revolvers were handy. On a pile of rocks near by, with its head raised about a foot, was a spotted snake, which Officer Sullivan described as being about 10 feet in length and having a flat head as large as his hand. The reptile hissed and acted as though it were going to spring on them. The constables beat a hasty retreat. After going a short distance they decided to try and shoot the snake. They approached the rocks cautiously, but the reptile had disappeared.

The 14th Separate Company's Camp.

A Committee, composed of Lieutenant Freer and Sergeant Fowler, of the Fourteenth Separate Company, went to Pine Hill yesterday to make arrangements for the camping out of their fellow militiamen there in August. They located a camp 60x210 feet in size. A parade ground, 125x250 feet was laid out. This Committee will report at a business meeting of the Company to-night. At that time a Committee will be appointed to extend an invitation to the Twenty-Third Separate Company, of Hudson, to go in camp with the Fourteenth.

Outcome of Building Sewers Here.

Corporation Counsel Hasbrouck will apply to Judge Edwards at Special Term of Supreme Court here on Saturday for the appointment of Commissioners to appraise damages to property owners caused by the building of the main of the First Ward sewer.

The suit of Albert Burr against this City for damages caused by the Union-avenue sewer has been settled by Contractor Frank McGovern, the latter having been responsible for all damages.

Certain Alleged Cures.

It is said celery is a cure for rheumatism and neuralgia. Tomatoes stimulate the liver. Spinach and common dandelion have a direct effect on diseases of the kidneys. It is also said that garlic, onions and olives promote digestion by stimulating the circulatory system, with the consequent increase of the saliva and gastric juice. For sleeplessness raw onions are recommended.

THIS CITY'S BOARD OF HEALTH.

What was Said and Done at the Meeting Held on Wednesday Afternoon.

At the meeting of the Board of Health of this City on Wednesday afternoon there were present Mayor Newkirk, C. P. Ridenour, Dr. R. Loughran, Charles Merritt, James E. Ostrander, Dr. George C. Smith and City Clerk A. Schepmoes. The Clerk stated in regard to the North Front-street matter that he had gone to New-York City and served a notice on J. Valentine, who is understood to be the owner of the property. A letter received from Richard N. Arnow, of 154 Nassau-street, New-York City, stating that he was the attorney of a woman who was the owner of the property, and the title to the same was not Mr. Valentine's, but in the person whom he represented, and that he would cheerfully give permission to fill in the marsh providing no expense be charged against the owner, was read. It was placed on file.

Stephen Hyatt, of Rosendale, asked the Board to grant permission to tap the Union-avenue sewer. Mr. Ostrander moved that the application be granted. Dr. Smith said he understood everybody who liked tapped that sewer, and Hyatt might as well do so as the others, but it should be done under the superintendence of the Sanitary Inspector. Mr. Merritt objected to emptying kitchen water in this sewer because it empties on a public place near one of the public drives. "The kitchen refuse thrown out on open ground creates just as much of a stench as the refuse of closets." Dr. Smith said he understood that that portion of the sewer ran into Jacob's Valley. If it ran the other way he was not in favor of it. Mr. Ridenour said it would be establishing a bad precedent—a great many other property owners would demand the same privilege. The resolution of Mr. Ostrander was lost, ayes 1, noes 4.

The following communication from the State Board of Health was read:

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH OF NEW-YORK,
ALBANY, May 31, 1889.

To the Board of Health of the City of Kingston, N. Y.:

GENTLEMEN—Petitions have been forwarded to this State Board of Health from the local health authorities of the town and village of Saugerties, protesting on grounds of health against the proposed action of your City in discharging its raw sewage into the Esopus Creek. Before proceeding further in the matter the State Board of Health would like to know your views upon the subject. Very respectfully yours,
FREDERICK COWAN,
Assistant Secretary.

Mr. Ostrander moved the letter be laid on the table. Dr. Loughran said some action should be taken or this City would likely have a peremptory order stopping the building of sewers. "By raw material is meant sewage going directly into the stream without separating for the purpose of using the solids as manure." Mr. Merritt—"How about placing tanks there?" Dr. Loughran—"If that is done, they will make no objection." Dr. Smith—"Is it proposed to empty raw sewage from the First Ward sewers into the Creek?" Dr. Loughran—"It is." Mr. Ostrander—"Let the Board of Health go down to Glenerie Falls and they will soon come to the conclusion that the sewage of the First Ward will not injure Saugerties." Mr. Merritt—"One hundred and fifty tons of manure were washed down the creek during the freshet. No one's health seems to have been injured by it." Dr. Loughran said that Gardiner, Engineer of the State Board, when he visited this place, recommended the emptying of sewage in the Creek. "Mr. Dawes, of Saugerties, now is a member of the State Board of Health, and will probably have strong influence with the Board." After some discussion as to what quantity of sewage would go into the Creek, Mr. Ridenour moved that the matter be referred to the Health Officer, City Clerk and Dr. Smith to prepare a proper answer explanatory of the whole situation. Adopted.

William U. Mason asked permission to turn water from the laundry on his lot on Fair-street into the gutter, so that it would run into the sewer at the corner of Fair and North-Front-streets. A "consent," signed by all the property owners between Mason's property and the sewer, was read. Dr. Smith moved permission be granted on condition that if there is not sufficient grade a pipe be laid, which was carried. A request by a citizen named Davenport to tap the Union-avenue sewer was denied. The question was discussed whether residents of St. James-street should have the right to use the First Ward sewers. It was said that some provision ought to be made so that in case they use them they could pay their share of the tax for building them. The City Clerk said the Assessors would take that into consideration. H. W. Winne sent in a petition to be allowed to build a cess pool in Wall-street, to use until the sewers are built. Dr. Smith said putting cess-pools in streets was a nuisance. Several members claimed that it was doing great damage to the Wall-street pavement to continually dig it up. It was said that a woman, without making an application, had placed a cess-pool in the street. Permission was granted to Mr. Winne.

Dr. Loughran, Health Officer, reported that the general health of the City "was good." In regard to the North Front street swamp he stated that it would be filled in about two feet. The total expense would not exceed $200. On motion of Mr. Merritt, hereafter no permission will be given to persons to tap a sewer or construct temporary cess pools in streets until the matter is brought to the attention of the Board. When such permission is granted a full record of the same to be kept. Certain Wall-street merchants were directed to cease emptying waste water into the gutter of that street.

The Record of Amusements Here.

The concert and entertainment at Washington Hall last evening, under the auspices of Professor Spoth, attracted a large audience. Those who took part were the recipients of much applause. The programme was a varied one, there being many amusing as well as musical features. The zither solo by Miss L. Prell, with Professor Spoth as piano accompanist, was pleasing. William Prell and Charles Lay personated two colored boys so well that their efforts were vociferously applauded. Miss L. Pattison's two recitations, especially the one relating to a Celtic woman whose child was supposed lost in London streets, created amusement. Miss A. Arnold, in "The Train to Mauro," acted well the part of an old lady. The singing of the members of the Rondout Quartette Club was well received. The others who contributed to the pleasure of the evening, vocally and instrumentally, were the Misses K. Hiltebrandt, L. Kirchner, M. Derrenbacher, A. Walter, L. Raichle, N. Reiser and Messrs. M. Nachtigal, J. Eltermann, Joseph Mellert, Kirchner and Walter.

The entertainment given by the young people of the Church of the Holy Spirit at Washington Hall on Tuesday evening will be repeated to-morrow evening. Half the proceeds will be sent to the Johnstown sufferers.

"The Plunkett Dramatic Company" is booked to appear at Liscomb's Opera House to-night, to-morrow night and Saturday night. On Saturday a matinee performance will be given by the company, the entire proceeds of which will be sent to Johnstown.

In Reference to "Hotel" Licenses.

[From the Poughkeepsie Eagle.]

We say, and the people say, that the granting of hotel licenses in this City is a fraud and a reproach. We say there are not 21 hotels in this City, and the people know it. We say that Commissioners Doheny and Krieger know it also. And if they know it they have violated the law in granting so many hotel licenses. And if they don't know it they have violated the law in granting the licenses, because it is their business to know if there are so many hotels. Commissioners Doheny and Krieger have got to face the music. There is going to be no more foolishness about this matter.

IN THE RELIGIOUS FIELD HEREABOUT.

Farewell Reception to the Rev. Dr. Magee—Conventions in Two Places, Etc.

The farewell reception tendered the Rev. Irving Magee, D. D., in the chapel of the Rondout Presbyterian Church last evening, was largely attended. Among the clergymen present were the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Pastor of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, and the Rev. Thomas Lamont, Pastor of the M. E. Church. The Ladies' Committee, consisting of Mrs. Abram Hasbrouck, Mrs. H. S. Terwilliger, Mrs. Frank Powley, Mrs. Grove Webster, Mrs. J. B. Alliger, and Mrs. Sleight entertained all comers. It was 8:30 o'clock when Dr. Magee arrived at the church. As he crossed the threshold a number of little children surrounded him and presented him with two bouquets of flowers. After refreshments had been served Professor W. E. Bunten presented Dr. Magee with $200 in gold, a gift of the congregation. Mr. Bunten, in making the presentation, said in part:

There is always an element of sadness when old associations are sundered—when something in our lives is gone. Our beloved Pastor is about to leave us. The relationship between Pastor and people is to be broken but the ties which bound us so closely for so many years will not be forgotten—they will live with us as a pleasant memory. Dr. Magee has been with us in hours of pleasure and enjoyment, in sickness and sorrow. In all these relations his sympathy has been of the tenderest. He has been a faithful servant of the Lord. Our prayers, dear Pastor, will follow you wheresoever you may go. You have our friendship, esteem and kind regards. King Solomon sent ships after gold but we do better than this. And now, in behalf of many friends, my dear sir, I have the pleasure of presenting to you this token of their esteem, which is a mystery. We hope and trust that this will not be a final farewell.

In responding Dr. Magee said in part:

It is beyond my power at the present moment to make a fitting response. I thank you all for the one you have commissioned to speak so kindly and affectionately. I have spoken many good-byes in public, but this is my personal good-bye, and my heart wells up within me at the parting. My associations with you have always been of the pleasantest and most gratifying character. It touches me deeply to hear my brother say that I have been with you in your sorrows as well as joys. It is indeed a pleasure to know how many have come into the church during my pastorate. Sorrows and joys are things in this life not to be forgotten. Whatever I have said that may be forgotten, do not forget the Great Head of the Church. My brother alluded to new ties that are to be formed. Let me quote a Latin phrase, which, translated, means while forming new friendships, cherish the old ones. I go from here without a shadow upon my heart towards any one. If I have said or done anything during my pastorate to offend any one of you, I pray that it now be forgotten. I will always feel a tender regard for this congregation. I thank you all for the kindness you have extended to me. To see you now and to say good-bye touches my heart. I had not the remotest idea of a parting present, and this token makes me very happy not for its intrinsic value but for the manner in which it was given. Once more good-bye. God bless you. God bless you. Good-bye.

There were many moist eyes when Dr. Magee closed his remarks. On leaving each person shook hands with the Doctor and wished him a speedy recovery to health.

Yesterday the thirtieth annual convention of Baptist Sunday Schools of the Hudson River Central Association came to a close at Cold Spring. The Rev. A. K. Fuller, P. B. Warner, Mary Warner, Mrs. William Terwilliger and Marion Hibbard were present as delegates of the Rondout Baptist Sunday School. The Rev. B. L. Herr, of Tarrytown, presided. The attendance was large. Addresses were made by the Rev. W. Webster, of Newburgh; the Rev. J. Campbell, of New-York City; the Rev. J. Foote, of Sing Sing, and the Rev. I. Davis, of Jersey City. School reports and letters were read. Topics relating to Sunday School work were discussed. A resolution of regret of the coming departure of the Rev. A. K. Fuller to Sioux Falls, Dakota, was unanimously passed. It was stated that Mr. Fuller had done good work for the Sunday School cause during his pastorate here, and it was with sorrow that the Association learned that he was to remove to another field. The following were elected as officers of the Association for the ensuing year: The Rev. B. L. Herr, President; R. E. Lansing, of Poughkeepsie, Vice-President; the Rev. R. Conkling, of Saugerties, Secretary and Treasurer. A. N. Barnes, of this City, was chosen a member of the Executive Board. In point of interest, attendance and work accomplished the Convention was the most successful the Association has held in several years.

The sessions of the General Synod of the Reformed Church now being held in Catskill are largely attended. The following officers have been elected: The Rev. Dr. Evert VanSlyke, President; the Rev. Christian VanDerVeen, Vice-President; the Rev. Messrs. Henry E. Cobb and H. E. Dasker, Clerks. The time for holding sessions is arranged as follows: From 9 A. M. to 12 M.; from 2:30 to 5:30 P. M.; evening sessions begin at 7:30. The Synodical sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Hutton on Wednesday evening. The Doctor took as his text the words: "And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him and said unto him the Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valor." The sermon was an eloquent one. Among the sad incidents of the evening session was the reception of a message from the Rev. Dr. Philip Phelps, Jr., of Schoharie County, saying that his daughter had perished in the Johnstown flood and he was thus unable to be present.

The camp meeting for the Newburgh District will be held in Wesley Grove, near Neelytown, on the Montgomery Branch of the Erie Railroad, commencing on Thursday, August 1, and closing on Friday, August 9.

Children's Day will be appropriately celebrated on Sunday in St. James M. E. Church, Kingston.

The Ways of Horses.

[From the Montgomery Standard.]

A horse is a queer animal. It knows more than any other animal except a dog and we have seen a dog that was afraid of its own shadow. The other day while the horse of Charles Ketcham was standing at the depot, the Wallkill Valley and Erie trains both came rushing past it with steam blowing off. The horse not as much as raised its ears. The wind, however, moved a little piece of white paper on the ground about half the size of an envelope, and the horse was ready to make tracks for Comfort's Hill without heeding the notice on our new iron bridge.

What a Returned "Boomer Says."

[From the Middletown Argus.]

Thomas Lain, who went West several months ago to join the Oklahoma boomers, has returned to this City. He stopped for several weeks at a farm house near the Oklahoma line and when the promised land was opened for settlement joined the boomers and located a claim. He likes the country and the climate but does not take kindly to the rough mode of living necessary, and is not certain that he will occupy his claim.

Ulster County Soldiers Going to Gettysburg—Affairs of Montrepose Cemetery—A Feline Curiosity—Adulteration Discussed by Grocers—Places Sightly and Unsightly.

At a meeting of the Montrepose Cemetery Association, held on Monday, James G. Lindsley, John McEntee and A. A. Crosby were appointed a committee to transact business for the Association. Yesterday afternoon the committee met and determined that hereafter the charge for opening new graves, including sodding, will be $4 for adults and $3 for children. Frederick Port was appointed Superintendent. In the past every owner of a lot has been supposed to take care of it. The Association has decided to charge a yearly fee, and the work hereafter to be done under the supervision of the Superintendent, who will be responsible for the appearance of the grounds.

The monument of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment, erected on the Gettysburg battlefield, will be dedicated on July 25. The surviving members of the Regiment and their friends who will accompany them to Gettysburg will leave this City by special train on Monday, July 24.

A little five-year-old girl, who was induced to allow a physician here to vaccinate her yesterday, by being told how "nice" it would be to have a pretty little flower put on her arm, stood the operation bravely for a time and then said, very coolly: "That'll do, Doctor, that'll do."

One of the pleasantest locations hereabout is on what is known as Pell's Road or street. The ground is high. There is a fine view obtainable of the Catskills. During the hot weather pleasant breezes blow. The meadows are rich with clover. It is a delightful spot for ramblers to visit

Children in places along the Hudson River, including Nyack, Newburgh and Poughkeepsie, have recently been arrested for throwing stones and annoying people. Portions of this City are afflicted with children just as bad, but thus far no arrests have been made.

Last night a farmer on Union-avenue drove his team into a light wagon, the horse attached to which was driven by two young men of this City. One of the farmer's horses put one of its feet through the hind wheel of the light wagon without breaking the spokes.

The Corn family here have received a postal card from Aaron A. Corn, mailed from Johnstown, Pa., as follows:

Dear Sisters and Brother:

I suppose you are worried, but do not worry, for we are all O. K. "Becky" and the children are at Altoona. I do not know when I can leave here. They have very good accommodations.

The operetta "The Land of Nod" will be repeated at Washington Hall by the Young People's Society of the Church of the Holy Spirit to-morrow evening. One-half of the gross receipts will be sent to the Johnstown sufferers.

There are many former residents of this City who have accumulated wealth in the Metropolis. The gains have come in most instances by prudent investments in real estate in the growing portions of New-York and Brooklyn.

Mayor Newkirk has called meetings of citizens at the Court House up-town and at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms down-town this evening at 8 o'clock to take action towards aiding the Johnstown sufferers.

Itinerants from Turkey have been going from house to house here begging alms. The men do not trouble themselves to announce their coming by knocking at the doors of houses, but walk right in.

The proceeds of the excursion to be given on the Fourth of July, under the auspices of St. Mary's Young Men's Literary Association, will be devoted to purchasing a suitable library for the organization.

Nearly the whole range of the Catskill Mountains can be seen from the City Hall windows. The beautiful view is varied by the shadows of the clouds, the rain storms, or the mellow light of the moon at night.

Among the tricks and adulterations discovered by grocers is that of soaking old potatoes in a preparation that makes the rough outer skin peel off and leaves only the smooth inner skin like that of a new potato.

The McClung family of this City furnished its proportion of soldiers in the War of the Rebellion. Four brothers entered the army. Three—Charles P., James H. and William B.—gave their lives.

Pinxter bloom is "out." As a house bouquet it cannot be excelled. It is such a fresh-looking flower, and its fragrance has so much of the wild woods about it that it is a favorite with every one.

Edwin Reynolds, a traveling man, writes to a friend here that trade in the Southwest and other sections of the country is brisk and much better now than it was last year.

Small boys have learned that the firecracker crop for 1889 is ripe. It is against the law to explode firecrackers in the streets of this City, but that makes no difference to the average small boy.

Dogs found unmuzzled in Newburgh streets are liable to be shot and their owners fined. Similar action might be taken here. It would not be a "bad idea" to also muzzle goats.

"McFadden's Drakes" is a new puzzle. There are drakes and ducks and two pens. The drakes have to be put in one pen and the ducks in the other.

St. Mary's Church was crowded last evening to witness the marriage of George W. Beach, of Poughkeepsie, to Miss Anna A. O'Reilly, of this City.

Lambert J. DuBois is soliciting subscriptions to purchase fireworks to celebrate the Fourth of July, under the auspices of the Ponckhockie Chapel.

Bottles labelled "gin," "brandy," "whiskey," etc., are still to be seen on bars of saloon-keepers who have been refused "hotel licenses."

A constable here contemplates purchasing a bicycle to make his rounds. If he gets a tandem it will be handy when he makes an arrest.

A man named Henry Mattlock for assaulting Edward Perry paid $5 to Recorder Hussey this forenoon.

The stone for the foundation of a new house is being laid down on Cornell-street, near the West Shore station.

Much of the laundry work in this and in other cities, formerly done by women, is now done by men.

The mill pond on Hasbrouck-avenue can hardly be classed among the "beauty spots" of this City.

The Soutter accounting will come up for a hearing in the Ulster Surrogate's Court on Friday.

Carpenters continue to find much work to do here, despite cries of "dull times."

A cat with a penchant for the perfume of roses is a curiosity "On-the-Hill."

Ladies' parasols this summer as relates to their handles are "immense."

City laborers have scraped the mud from portions of Union-avenue.

"Cool and fair to-night; warmer to-morrow," says "Indications."

Members of the White Cross Army are doing excellent work here.

Cherries are ripening fast. The trees are well laden with fruit.

Novelties in hammocks are displayed in show windows.

Strawberries here are of large size and excellent flavor.

It Costs Less.

On the question of real economy Hood's Sarsaparilla is so far ahead of other preparations as to place them entirely out of the race as competitors. Here are facts in regard to this popular medicine, easily susceptible of conclusive proof:

1. Hood's Sarsaparilla costs the Manufacturer more than any other competing preparation, because it is more highly concentrated and contains more real medicinal value.

2. It costs the Jobber more, as a consequence of the fact just stated.

3. It costs the Retail Druggist more, for the same reason as can easily be learned by inquiry. Hence the desire of some retailers to sell their own preparations, which costs them less, and for which they get the same price, thus making more money. But

4. It costs the Consumer less than any other medicine, because of its greater concentrated strength and the quantity in each bottle, and because it is the only preparation of which can truly be said, "100 Doses One Dollar."

That the people appreciate this is shown by the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has the Largest Sale of any sarsaparilla or blood purifier. It possesses peculiar merit and effects wonderful cures.

A Point for You.

When you buy a medicine, you want the best. Ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist upon having it. Do not let any argument or persuasion influence you to buy what you do not want. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I procured one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor Enterprise Belleville, Mich.

Society Matters.

Ulster County Lodge, No. 29, I. O. of G. T., met in quarterly session at Good Templars Hall, Bloomingdale, yesterday. C. C. T. Griffiths, of Olive Lodge, presided. P. A. Schryver was recommended to the Grand Lodge for the position of County Deputy for the ensuing year. Mr. Schryver was also elected as Representative to the Grand Lodge, and J. Cowles, of Accord, was elected as Alternate. At noon a collation, prepared by the ladies of the local lodge, was partaken of by over 50 delegates and honorary members. The Lodge adjourned to meet again on the first Wednesday in September at St. Remy.

The following have been elected officers of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons of the State of New York:

John W. Vrooman, of Herkimer, Grand Master; William Sherer, Brooklyn, Deputy Grand Master; James TenEyck, Senior Grand Warden; John Hodge, Lockport, Junior Grand Warden; Judge John J. Gorman, Grand Treasurer; Edward M. L. Ehlers, Grand Secretary; Edward B. Hopper, Trustee of the Hall and Asylum Fund. The newly elected Grand Master will appoint 29 District Deputy Grand Masters.

The annual election of officers of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the State of New-York will be held by each subordinate lodge of the Order at its second regular meeting in June. None but Past Grands are allowed to vote.

Two Close Calls on the Railroad Track.

Fritz Engle, of New-York City, while walking on the West Shore railroad track yesterday, near Marlborough, was struck by an express train and thrown 20 feet. He escaped with a broken arm. Engel was taken to the Newburgh almshouse, where his arm was set. A dinner was furnished him, of which he partook with a relish and with a free pass two hours later he was enjoying a trip to New-York as a passenger on the same road over which he had footed it the day before.

An unknown man, whose appearance gave evidence of intoxication, had a narrow escape from being killed at the lower Hasbrouck-avenue crossing of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad last evening. The man was noticed on the track, and though the engine's whistle was blown and the bell rung he made no effort to leave the rails. He was caught by the pilot and tossed. The engine was stopped and it was supposed the man was killed but he arose to his feet and solemnly walked away, much to the relief of the engine-driver and others who noticed the occurrence.

As Related by Two Officers Here.

One day recently Officers Barry and Sullivan were in the woods over the Newark Lime & Cement Company's quarries looking for a man for whom they had a warrant. While "beating the bush" the officers saw something that made them grasp their clubs and feel if their revolvers were handy. On a pile of rocks near by, with its head raised about a foot, was a spotted snake, which Officer Sullivan described as being about 10 feet in length and having a flat head as large as his hand. The reptile hissed and acted as though it were going to spring on them. The constables beat a hasty retreat. After going a short distance they decided to try and shoot the snake. They approached the rocks cautiously, but the reptile had disappeared.

The 14th Separate Company's Camp.

A Committee, composed of Lieutenant Freer and Sergeant Fowler, of the Fourteenth Separate Company, went to Pine Hill yesterday to make arrangements for the camping out of their fellow militiamen there in August. They located a camp 60x210 feet in size. A parade ground, 125x250 feet was laid out. This Committee will report at a business meeting of the Company to-night. At that time a Committee will be appointed to extend an invitation to the Twenty-Third Separate Company, of Hudson, to go in camp with the Fourteenth.

Outcome of Building Sewers Here.

Corporation Counsel Hasbrouck will apply to Judge Edwards at Special Term of Supreme Court here on Saturday for the appointment of Commissioners to appraise damages to property owners caused by the building of the main of the First Ward sewer.

The suit of Albert Burr against this City for damages caused by the Union-avenue sewer has been settled by Contractor Frank McGovern, the latter having been responsible for all damages.

Certain Alleged Cures.

It is said celery is a cure for rheumatism and neuralgia. Tomatoes stimulate the liver. Spinach and common dandelion have a direct effect on diseases of the kidneys. It is also said that garlic, onions and olives promote digestion by stimulating the circulatory system, with the consequent increase of the saliva and gastric juice. For sleeplessness raw onions are recommended.

THIS CITY'S BOARD OF HEALTH.

What was Said and Done at the Meeting Held on Wednesday Afternoon.

At the meeting of the Board of Health of this City on Wednesday afternoon there were present Mayor Newkirk, C. P. Ridenour, Dr. R. Loughran, Charles Merritt, James E. Ostrander, Dr. George C. Smith and City Clerk A. Schepmoes. The Clerk stated in regard to the North Front-street matter that he had gone to New-York City and served a notice on J. Valentine, who is understood to be the owner of the property. A letter received from Richard N. Arnow, of 154 Nassau-street, New-York City, stating that he was the attorney of a woman who was the owner of the property, and the title to the same was not Mr. Valentine's, but in the person whom he represented, and that he would cheerfully give permission to fill in the marsh providing no expense be charged against the owner, was read. It was placed on file.

Stephen Hyatt, of Rosendale, asked the Board to grant permission to tap the Union-avenue sewer. Mr. Ostrander moved that the application be granted. Dr. Smith said he understood everybody who liked tapped that sewer, and Hyatt might as well do so as the others, but it should be done under the superintendence of the Sanitary Inspector. Mr. Merritt objected to emptying kitchen water in this sewer because it empties on a public place near one of the public drives. "The kitchen refuse thrown out on open ground creates just as much of a stench as the refuse of closets." Dr. Smith said he understood that that portion of the sewer ran into Jacob's Valley. If it ran the other way he was not in favor of it. Mr. Ridenour said it would be establishing a bad precedent—a great many other property owners would demand the same privilege. The resolution of Mr. Ostrander was lost, ayes 1, noes 4.

The following communication from the State Board of Health was read:

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH OF NEW-YORK,
ALBANY, May 31, 1889.

To the Board of Health of the City of Kingston, N. Y.:

GENTLEMEN—Petitions have been forwarded to this State Board of Health from the local health authorities of the town and village of Saugerties, protesting on grounds of health against the proposed action of your City in discharging its raw sewage into the Esopus Creek. Before proceeding further in the matter the State Board of Health would like to know your views upon the subject. Very respectfully yours,

FREDERICK COWAN,
Assistant Secretary.

Mr. Ostrander moved the letter be laid on the table. Dr. Loughran said some action should be taken or this City would likely have a peremptory order stopping the building of sewers. "By raw material is meant sewage going directly into the stream without separating for the purpose of using the solids as manure." Mr. Merritt—"How about placing tanks there?" Dr. Loughran—"If that is done, they will make no objection." Dr. Smith—"Is it proposed to empty raw sewage from the First Ward sewers into the Creek?" Dr. Loughran—"It is." Mr. Ostrander—"Let the Board of Health go down to Glenerie Falls and they will soon come to the conclusion that the sewage of the First Ward will not injure Saugerties." Mr. Merritt—"One hundred and fifty tons of manure were washed down the creek during the freshet. No one's health seems to have been injured by it." Dr. Loughran said that Gardiner, Engineer of the State Board, when he visited this place, recommended the emptying of sewage in the Creek. "Mr. Dawes, of Saugerties, now is a member of the State Board of Health, and will probably have strong influence with the Board." After some discussion as to what quantity of sewage would go into the Creek, Mr. Ridenour moved that the matter be referred to the Health Officer, City Clerk and Dr. Smith to prepare a proper answer explanatory of the whole situation. Adopted.

William U. Mason asked permission to turn water from the laundry on his lot on Fair-street into the gutter, so that it would run into the sewer at the corner of Fair and North-Front-streets. A "consent," signed by all the property owners between Mason's property and the sewer, was read. Dr. Smith moved permission be granted on condition that if there is not sufficient grade a pipe be laid, which was carried. A request by a citizen named Davenport to tap the Union-avenue sewer was denied. The question was discussed whether residents of St. James-street should have the right to use the First Ward sewers. It was said that some provision ought to be made so that in case they use them they could pay their share of the tax for building them. The City Clerk said the Assessors would take that into consideration. H. W. Winne sent in a petition to be allowed to build a cess pool in Wall-street, to use until the sewers are built. Dr. Smith said putting cess-pools in streets was a nuisance. Several members claimed that it was doing great damage to the Wall-street pavement to continually dig it up. It was said that a woman, without making an application, had placed a cess-pool in the street. Permission was granted to Mr. Winne.

Dr. Loughran, Health Officer, reported that the general health of the City "was good." In regard to the North Front street swamp he stated that it would be filled in about two feet. The total expense would not exceed $200. On motion of Mr. Merritt, hereafter no permission will be given to persons to tap a sewer or construct temporary cess pools in streets until the matter is brought to the attention of the Board. When such permission is granted a full record of the same to be kept. Certain Wall-street merchants were directed to cease emptying waste water into the gutter of that street.

The Record of Amusements Here.

The concert and entertainment at Washington Hall last evening, under the auspices of Professor Spoth, attracted a large audience. Those who took part were the recipients of much applause. The programme was a varied one, there being many amusing as well as musical features. The zither solo by Miss L. Prell, with Professor Spoth as piano accompanist, was pleasing. William Prell and Charles Lay personated two colored boys so well that their efforts were vociferously applauded. Miss L. Pattison's two recitations, especially the one relating to a Celtic woman whose child was supposed lost in London streets, created amusement. Miss A. Arnold, in "The Train to Mauro," acted well the part of an old lady. The singing of the members of the Rondout Quartette Club was well received. The others who contributed to the pleasure of the evening, vocally and instrumentally, were the Misses K. Hiltebrandt, L. Kirchner, M. Derrenbacher, A. Walter, L. Raichle, N. Reiser and Messrs. M. Nachtigal, J. Eltermann, Joseph Mellert, Kirchner and Walter.

The entertainment given by the young people of the Church of the Holy Spirit at Washington Hall on Tuesday evening will be repeated to-morrow evening. Half the proceeds will be sent to the Johnstown sufferers.

"The Plunkett Dramatic Company" is booked to appear at Liscomb's Opera House to-night, to-morrow night and Saturday night. On Saturday a matinee performance will be given by the company, the entire proceeds of which will be sent to Johnstown.

In Reference to "Hotel" Licenses.

[From the Poughkeepsie Eagle.]

We say, and the people say, that the granting of hotel licenses in this City is a fraud and a reproach. We say there are not 21 hotels in this City, and the people know it. We say that Commissioners Doheny and Krieger know it also. And if they know it they have violated the law in granting so many hotel licenses. And if they don't know it they have violated the law in granting the licenses, because it is their business to know if there are so many hotels. Commissioners Doheny and Krieger have got to face the music. There is going to be no more foolishness about this matter.

Disease Among Horses.

[From the Poughkeepsie News-Press.]

A dangerous epidemic has made its appearance among the horses in the vicinity of Clintondale, Ulster County. It is said to be the worst form of glanders.

IN THE RELIGIOUS FIELD HEREABOUT.

Farewell Reception to the Rev. Dr. Magee—Conventions in Two Places, Etc.

The farewell reception tendered the Rev. Irving Magee, D. D., in the chapel of the Rondout Presbyterian Church last evening, was largely attended. Among the clergymen present were the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Pastor of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, and the Rev. Thomas Lamont, Pastor of the M. E. Church. The Ladies' Committee, consisting of Mrs. Abram Hasbrouck, Mrs. H. S. Terwilliger, Mrs. Frank Powley, Mrs. Grove Webster, Mrs. J. B. Alliger, and Mrs. Sleight entertained all comers. It was 8:30 o'clock when Dr. Magee arrived at the church. As he crossed the threshold a number of little children surrounded him and presented him with two bouquets of flowers. After refreshments had been served Professor W. E. Bunten presented Dr. Magee with $200 in gold, a gift of the congregation. Mr. Bunten, in making the presentation, said in part:

There is always an element of sadness when old associations are sundered—when something in our lives is gone. Our beloved Pastor is about to leave us. The relationship between Pastor and people is to be broken but the ties which bound us so closely for so many years will not be forgotten—they will live with us as a pleasant memory. Dr. Magee has been with us in hours of pleasure and enjoyment, in sickness and sorrow. In all these relations his sympathy has been of the tenderest. He has been a faithful servant of the Lord. Our prayers, dear Pastor, will follow you wheresoever you may go. You have our friendship, esteem and kind regards. King Solomon sent ships after gold but we do better than this. And now, in behalf of many friends, my dear sir, I have the pleasure of presenting to you this token of their esteem, which is a mystery. We hope and trust that this will not be a final farewell.

In responding Dr. Magee said in part:

It is beyond my power at the present moment to make a fitting response. I thank you all for the one you have commissioned to speak so kindly and affectionately. I have spoken many good-byes in public, but this is my personal good-bye, and my heart wells up within me at the parting. My associations with you have always been of the pleasantest and most gratifying character. It touches me deeply to hear my brother say that I have been with you in your sorrows as well as joys. It is indeed a pleasure to know how many have come into the church during my pastorate. Sorrows and joys are things in this life not to be forgotten. Whatever I have said that may be forgotten, do not forget the Great Head of the Church. My brother alluded to new ties that are to be formed. Let me quote a Latin phrase, which, translated, means while forming new friendships, cherish the old ones. I go from here without a shadow upon my heart towards any one. If I have said or done anything during my pastorate to offend any one of you, I pray that it now be forgotten. I will always feel a tender regard for this congregation. I thank you all for the kindness you have extended to me. To see you now and to say good-bye touches my heart. I had not the remotest idea of a parting present, and this token makes me very happy not for its intrinsic value but for the manner in which it was given. Once more good-bye. God bless you. Good-bye.

There were many moist eyes when Dr. Magee closed his remarks. On leaving each person shook hands with the Doctor and wished him a speedy recovery to health.

Yesterday the thirtieth annual convention of Baptist Sunday Schools of the Hudson River Central Association came to a close at Cold Spring. The Rev. A. K. Fuller, P. B. Warner, Mary Warner, Mrs. William Terwilliger and Marion Hibbard were present as delegates of the Rondout Baptist Sunday School. The Rev. B. L. Herr, of Tarrytown, presided. The attendance was large. Addresses were made by the Rev. W. Webster, of Newburgh; the Rev. J. Campbell, of New-York City; the Rev. J. Foote, of Sing Sing, and the Rev. I. Davis, of Jersey City. School reports and letters were read. Topics relating to Sunday School work were discussed. A resolution of regret of the coming departure of the Rev. A. K. Fuller to Sioux Falls, Dakota, was unanimously passed. It was stated that Mr. Fuller had done good work for the Sunday School cause during his pastorate here, and it was with sorrow that the Association learned that he was to remove to another field. The following were elected as officers of the Association for the ensuing year: The Rev. B. L. Herr, President; R. E. Lansing, of Poughkeepsie, Vice-President; the Rev. R. Conkling, of Saugerties, Secretary and Treasurer. A. N. Barnes, of this City, was chosen a member of the Executive Board. In point of interest, attendance and work accomplished the Convention was the most successful the Association has held in several years.

The sessions of the General Synod of the Reformed Church now being held in Catskill are largely attended. The following officers have been elected: The Rev. Dr. Evert VanSlyke, President; the Rev. Christian VanDerVeen, Vice-President; the Rev. Messrs. Henry E. Cobb and H. E. Dasker, Clerks. The time for holding sessions is arranged as follows: From 9 A. M. to 12 M.; from 2:30 to 5:30 P. M.; evening sessions begin at 7:30. The Synodical sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Hutton on Wednesday evening. The Doctor took as his text the words: "And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him and said unto him the Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valor." The sermon was an eloquent one. Among the sad incidents of the evening session was the reception of a message from the Rev. Dr. Philip Phelps, Jr., of Schoharie County, saying that his daughter had perished in the Johnstown flood and he was thus unable to be present.

The camp meeting for the Newburgh District will be held in Wesley Grove, near Neelytown, on the Montgomery Branch of the Erie Railroad, commencing on Thursday, August 1, and closing on Friday, August 9.

Children's Day will be appropriately celebrated on Sunday in St. James M. E. Church, Kingston.

Wanamaker's first salary was $1.25 a week.

Senator Farwell began life as a surveyor.

The Ways of Horses.

[From the Montgomery Standard.]

A horse is a queer animal. It knows more than any other animal except a dog and we have seen a dog that was afraid of its own shadow. The other day while the horse of Charles Ketcham was standing at the depot, the Wallkill Valley and Erie trains both came rushing past it with steam blowing off. The horse not as much as raised its ears. The wind, however, moved a little piece of white paper on the ground about half the size of an envelope, and the horse was ready to make tracks for Comfort's Hill without heeding the notice on our new iron bridge.

What a Returned "Boomer Says."

[From the Middletown Argus.]

Thomas Lain, who went West several months ago to join the Oklahoma boomers, has returned to this City. He stopped for several weeks at a farm house near the Oklahoma line and when the promised land was opened for settlement joined the boomers and located a claim. He likes the country and the climate but does not take kindly to the rough mode of living necessary, and is not certain that he will occupy his claim.

TOUR OF CITY AND SUBURBS.

BITS OF NEWS, STORIES AND SOME CHAT AND GOSSIP.

Ulster County Soldiers Going to Gettysburg—Affairs of Montrepose Cemetery—A Feline Curiosity—Adulteration Discussed by Grocers—Places Sightly and Unsightly.

At a meeting of the Montrepose Cemetery Association, held on Monday, James G. Lindsley, John McEntee and A. A. Crosby were appointed a committee to transact business for the Association. Yesterday afternoon the committee met and determined that hereafter the charge for opening new graves, including sodding, will be $4 for adults and $3 for children. Frederick Port was appointed Superintendent. In the past every owner of a lot has been supposed to take care of it. The Association has decided to charge a yearly fee, and the work hereafter to be done under the supervision of the Superintendent, who will be responsible for the appearance of the grounds.

The monument of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment, erected on the Gettysburg battlefield, will be dedicated on July 25. The surviving members of the Regiment and their friends who will accompany them to Gettysburg will leave this City by special train on Monday, July 24.

A little five-year-old girl, who was induced to allow a physician here to vaccinate her yesterday, by being told how "nice" it would be to have a pretty little flower put on her arm, stood the operation bravely for a time and then said, very coolly: "That'll do, Doctor, that'll do."

One of the pleasantest locations hereabout is on what is known as Pell's Road or street. The ground is high. There is a fine view obtainable of the Catskills. During the hot weather pleasant breezes blow. The meadows are rich with clover. It is a delightful spot for ramblers to visit

Children in places along the Hudson River, including Nyack, Newburgh and Poughkeepsie, have recently been arrested for throwing stones and annoying people. Portions of this City are afflicted with children just as bad, but thus far no arrests have been made.

Last night a farmer on Union-avenue drove his team into a light wagon, the horse attached to which was driven by two young men of this City. One of the farmer's horses put one of its feet through the hind wheel of the light wagon without breaking the spokes.

The Corn family here have received a postal card from Aaron A. Corn, mailed from Johnstown, Pa., as follows:

Dear Sisters and Brother:

I suppose you are worried, but do not worry, for we are all O. K. "Becky" and the children are at Altoona. I do not know when I can leave here. They have very good accommodations.

The operetta "The Land of Nod" will be repeated at Washington Hall by the Young People's Society of the Church of the Holy Spirit to-morrow evening. One-half of the gross receipts will be sent to the Johnstown sufferers.

There are many former residents of this City who have accumulated wealth in the Metropolis. The gains have come in most instances by prudent investments in real estate in the growing portions of New-York and Brooklyn.

Mayor Newkirk has called meetings of citizens at the Court House up-town and at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms down-town this evening at 8 o'clock to take action towards aiding the Johnstown sufferers.

Itinerants from Turkey have been going from house to house here begging alms. The men do not trouble themselves to announce their coming by knocking at the doors of houses, but walk right in.

The proceeds of the excursion to be given on the Fourth of July, under the auspices of St. Mary's Young Men's Literary Association, will be devoted to purchasing a suitable library for the organization.

Nearly the whole range of the Catskill Mountains can be seen from the City Hall windows. The beautiful view is varied by the shadows of the clouds, the rain storms, or the mellow light of the moon at night.

Among the tricks and adulterations discovered by grocers is that of soaking old potatoes in a preparation that makes the rough outer skin peel off and leaves only the smooth inner skin like that of a new potato.

The McClung family of this City furnished its proportion of soldiers in the War of the Rebellion. Four brothers entered the army. Three—Charles P., James H. and William B.—gave their lives.

Pinxter bloom is "out." As a house bouquet it cannot be excelled. It is such a fresh-looking flower, and its fragrance has so much of the wild woods about it that it is a favorite with every one.

Edwin Reynolds, a traveling man, writes to a friend here that trade in the Southwest and other sections of the country is brisk and much better now than it was last year.

Small boys have learned that the firecracker crop for 1889 is ripe. It is against the law to explode firecrackers in the streets of this City, but that makes no difference to the average small boy.

Dogs found unmuzzled in Newburgh streets are liable to be shot and their owners fined. Similar action might be taken here. It would not be a "bad idea" to also muzzle goats.

"McFadden's Drakes" is a new puzzle. There are drakes and ducks and two pens. The drakes have to be put in one pen and the ducks in the other.

St. Mary's Church was crowded last evening to witness the marriage of George W. Beach, of Poughkeepsie, to Miss Anna A. O'Reilly, of this City.

Lambert J. DuBois is soliciting subscriptions to purchase fireworks to celebrate the Fourth of July, under the auspices of the Ponckhockie Chapel.

Bottles labelled "gin," "brandy," "whiskey," etc., are still to be seen on bars of saloon-keepers who have been refused "hotel licenses."

It Costs Less.

On the question of real economy Hood's Sarsaparilla is so far ahead of other preparations as to place them entirely out of the race as competitors. Here are facts in regard to this popular medicine, easily susceptible of conclusive proof:

1. Hood's Sarsaparilla costs the Manufacturer more than any other competing preparation, because it is more highly concentrated and contains more real medicinal value.

2. It costs the Jobber more, as a consequence of the fact just stated.

3. It costs the Retail Druggist more, for the same reason - as can easily be learned by inquiry. Hence the desire of some retailers to sell their own preparations, which costs them less, and for which they get the same price, thus making more money. But

4. It costs the Consumer less than any other medicine, because of its greater concentrated strength and the quantity in each bottle, and because it is the only preparation of which can truly be said, "100 Doses One Dollar."

That the people appreciate this is shown by the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has the Largest Sale of any sarsaparilla or blood purifier. It possesses peculiar merit and effects wonderful cures.

A Point for You.

When you buy a medicine, you want the best. Ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist upon having it. Do not let any argument or persuasion influence you to buy what you do not want. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I procured one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor Enterprise Belleville, Mich.

Society Matters.

Ulster County Lodge, No. 29, I. O. of G. T., met in quarterly session at Good Templars Hall, Bloomingdale, yesterday. C. C. T. Griffiths, of Olive Lodge, presided. P. A. Schryver was recommended to the Grand Lodge for the position of County Deputy for the ensuing year. Mr. Schryver was also elected as Representative to the Grand Lodge, and J. Cowles, of Accord, was elected as Alternate. At noon a collation, prepared by the ladies of the local lodge, was partaken of by over 50 delegates and honorary members. The Lodge adjourned to meet again on the first Wednesday in September at St. Remy.

The following have been elected officers of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons of the State of New York:

John W. Vrooman, of Herkimer, Grand Master; William Sherer, Brooklyn, Deputy Grand Master; James TenEyck, Senior Grand Warden; John Hodge, Lockport, Junior Grand Warden; Judge John J. Gorman, Grand Treasurer; Edward M. L. Ehlers, Grand Secretary; Edward B. Hopper, Trustee of the Hall and Asylum Fund. The newly elected Grand Master will appoint 29 District Deputy Grand Masters.

The annual election of officers of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the State of New-York will be held by each subordinate lodge of the Order at its second regular meeting in June. None but Past Grands are allowed to vote.

Two Close Calls on the Railroad Track.

Fritz Engle, of New-York City, while walking on the West Shore railroad track yesterday, near Marlborough, was struck by an express train and thrown 20 feet. He escaped with a broken arm. Engel was taken to the Newburgh almshouse, where his arm was set. A dinner was furnished him, of which he partook with a relish and with a free pass two hours later he was enjoying a trip to New-York as a passenger on the same road over which he had footed it the day before.

An unknown man, whose appearance gave evidence of intoxication, had a narrow escape from being killed at the lower Hasbrouck-avenue crossing of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad last evening. The man was noticed on the track, and though the engine's whistle was blown and the bell rung he made no effort to leave the rails. He was caught by the pilot and tossed. The engine was stopped and it was supposed the man was killed but he arose to his feet and solemnly walked away, much to the relief of the engine-driver and others who noticed the occurrence.

As Related by Two Officers Here.

One day recently Officers Barry and Sullivan were in the woods over the Newark Lime & Cement Company's quarries looking for a man for whom they had a warrant. While "beating the bush" the officers saw something that made them grasp their clubs and feel if their revolvers were handy. On a pile of rocks near by, with its head raised about a foot, was a spotted snake, which Officer Sullivan described as being about 10 feet in length and having a flat head as large as his hand. The reptile hissed and acted as though it were going to spring on them. The constables beat a hasty retreat. After going a short distance they decided to try and shoot the snake. They approached the rocks cautiously, but the reptile had disappeared.

The 14th Separate Company's Camp.

A Committee, composed of Lieutenant Freer and Sergeant Fowler, of the Fourteenth Separate Company, went to Pine Hill yesterday to make arrangements for the camping out of their fellow militiamen there in August. They located a camp 60x210 feet in size. A parade ground, 125x250 feet was laid out. This Committee will report at a business meeting of the Company to-night. At that time a Committee will be appointed to extend an invitation to the Twenty-Third Separate Company, of Hudson, to go in camp with the Fourteenth.

Outcome of Building Sewers Here.

Corporation Counsel Hasbrouck will apply to Judge Edwards at Special Term of Supreme Court here on Saturday for the appointment of Commissioners to appraise damages to property owners caused by the building of the main of the First Ward sewer.

The suit of Albert Burr against this City for damages caused by the Union-avenue sewer has been settled by Contractor Frank McGovern, the latter having been responsible for all damages.

Certain Alleged Cures.

It is said celery is a cure for rheumatism and neuralgia. Tomatoes stimulate the liver. Spinach and common dandelion have a direct effect on diseases of the kidneys. It is also said that garlic, onions and olives promote digestion by stimulating the circulatory system, with the consequent increase of the saliva and gastric juice. For sleeplessness raw onions are recommended.

THIS CITY'S BOARD OF HEALTH.

What was Said and Done at the Meeting Held on Wednesday Afternoon.

At the meeting of the Board of Health of this City on Wednesday afternoon there were present Mayor Newkirk, C. P. Ridenour, Dr. R. Loughran, Charles Merritt, James E. Ostrander, Dr. George C. Smith and City Clerk A. Schepmoes. The Clerk stated in regard to the North Front-street matter that he had gone to New-York City and served a notice on J. Valentine, who is understood to be the owner of the property. A letter received from Richard N. Arnow, of 154 Nassau-street, New-York City, stating that he was the attorney of a woman who was the owner of the property, and the title to the same was not Mr. Valentine's, but in the person whom he represented, and that he would cheerfully give permission to fill in the marsh providing no expense be charged against the owner, was read. It was placed on file.

Stephen Hyatt, of Rosendale, asked the Board to grant permission to tap the Union-avenue sewer. Mr. Ostrander moved that the application be granted. Dr. Smith said he understood everybody who liked tapped that sewer, and Hyatt might as well do so as the others, but it should be done under the superintendence of the Sanitary Inspector. Mr. Merritt objected to emptying kitchen water in this sewer because it empties on a public place near one of the public drives. "The kitchen refuse thrown out on open ground creates just as much of a stench as the refuse of closets." Dr. Smith said he understood that that portion of the sewer ran into Jacob's Valley. If it ran the other way he was not in favor of it. Mr. Ridenour said it would be establishing a bad precedent—a great many other property owners would demand the same privilege. The resolution of Mr. Ostrander was lost, ayes 1, noes 4.

The following communication from the State Board of Health was read:

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH OF NEW-YORK,
ALBANY, May 31, 1889.

To the Board of Health of the City of Kingston, N. Y.:

GENTLEMEN—Petitions have been forwarded to this State Board of Health from the local health authorities of the town and village of Saugerties, protesting on grounds of health against the proposed action of your City in discharging its raw sewage into the Esopus Creek. Before proceeding further in the matter the State Board of Health would like to know your views upon the subject. Very respectfully yours,

FREDERICK COWAN,
Assistant Secretary.

Mr. Ostrander moved the letter be laid on the table. Dr. Loughran said some action should be taken or this City would likely have a peremptory order stopping the building of sewers. "By raw material is meant sewage going directly into the stream without separating for the purpose of using the solids as manure." Mr. Merritt—"How about placing tanks there?" Dr. Loughran—"If that is done, they will make no objection." Dr. Smith—"Is it proposed to empty raw sewage from the First Ward sewers into the Creek?" Dr. Loughran—"It is." Mr. Ostrander—"Let the Board of Health go down to Glenerie Falls and they will soon come to the conclusion that the sewage of the First Ward will not injure Saugerties." Mr. Merritt—"One hundred and fifty tons of manure were washed down the creek during the freshet. No one's health seems to have been injured by it." Dr. Loughran said that Gardiner, Engineer of the State Board, when he visited this place, recommended the emptying of sewage in the Creek. "Mr. Dawes, of Saugerties, now is a member of the State Board of Health, and will probably have strong influence with the Board." After some discussion as to what quantity of sewage would go into the Creek, Mr. Ridenour moved that the matter be referred to the Health Officer, City Clerk and Dr. Smith to prepare a proper answer explanatory of the whole situation. Adopted.

William U. Mason asked permission to turn water from the laundry on his lot on Fair-street into the gutter, so that it would run into the sewer at the corner of Fair and North-Front-streets. A "consent," signed by all the property owners between Mason's property and the sewer, was read. Dr. Smith moved permission be granted on condition that if there is not sufficient grade a pipe be laid, which was carried. A request by a citizen named Davenport to tap the Union-avenue sewer was denied. The question was discussed whether residents of St. James-street should have the right to use the First Ward sewers. It was said that some provision ought to be made so that in case they use them they could pay their share of the tax for building them. The City Clerk said the Assessors would take that into consideration. H. W. Winne sent in a petition to be allowed to build a cess pool in Wall-street, to use until the sewers are built. Dr. Smith said putting cess-pools in streets was a nuisance. Several members claimed that it was doing great damage to the Wall-street pavement to continually dig it up. It was said that a woman, without making an application, had placed a cess-pool in the street. Permission was granted to Mr. Winne.

Dr. Loughran, Health Officer, reported that the general health of the City "was good." In regard to the North Front street swamp he stated that it would be filled in about two feet. The total expense would not exceed $200. On motion of Mr. Merritt, hereafter no permission will be given to persons to tap a sewer or construct temporary cess pools in streets until the matter is brought to the attention of the Board. When such permission is granted a full record of the same to be kept. Certain Wall-street merchants were directed to cease emptying waste water into the gutter of that street.

The Record of Amusements Here.

The concert and entertainment at Washington Hall last evening, under the auspices of Professor Spoth, attracted a large audience. Those who took part were the recipients of much applause. The programme was a varied one, there being many amusing as well as musical features. The zither solo by Miss L. Prell, with Professor Spoth as piano accompanist, was pleasing. William Prell and Charles Lay personated two colored boys so well that their efforts were vociferously applauded. Miss L. Pattison's two recitations, especially the one relating to a Celtic woman whose child was supposed lost in London streets, created amusement. Miss A. Arnold, in "The Train to Mauro," acted well the part of an old lady. The singing of the members of the Rondout Quartette Club was well received. The others who contributed to the pleasure of the evening, vocally and instrumentally, were the Misses K. Hiltebrandt, L. Kirchner, M. Derrenbacher, A. Walter, L. Raichle, N. Reiser and Messrs. M. Nachtigal, J. Eltermann, Joseph Mellert, Kirchner and Walter.

The entertainment given by the young people of the Church of the Holy Spirit at Washington Hall on Tuesday evening will be repeated to-morrow evening. Half the proceeds will be sent to the Johnstown sufferers.

"The Plunkett Dramatic Company" is booked to appear at Liscomb's Opera House to-night, to-morrow night and Saturday night. On Saturday a matinee performance will be given by the company, the entire proceeds of which will be sent to Johnstown.

In Reference to "Hotel" Licenses.

[From the Poughkeepsie Eagle.]

We say, and the people say, that the granting of hotel licenses in this City is a fraud and a reproach. We say there are not 21 hotels in this City, and the people know it. We say that Commissioners Doheny and Krieger know it also. And if they know it they have violated the law in granting so many hotel licenses. And if they don't know it they have violated the law in granting the licenses, because it is their business to know if there are so many hotels. Commissioners Doheny and Krieger have got to face the music. There is going to be no more foolishness about this matter.

IN THE RELIGIOUS FIELD HEREABOUT.

Farewell Reception to the Rev. Dr. Magee —Conventions in Two Places, Etc.

The farewell reception tendered the Rev. Irving Magee, D. D., in the chapel of the Rondout Presbyterian Church last evening, was largely attended. Among the clergymen present were the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Pastor of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, and the Rev. Thomas Lamont, Pastor of the M. E. Church. The Ladies' Committee, consisting of Mrs. Abram Hasbrouck, Mrs. H. S. Terwilliger, Mrs. Frank Powley, Mrs. Grove Webster, Mrs. J. B. Alliger, and Mrs. Sleight entertained all comers. It was 8:30 o'clock when Dr. Magee arrived at the church. As he crossed the threshold a number of little children surrounded him and presented him with two bouquets of flowers. After refreshments had been served Professor W. E. Bunten presented Dr. Magee with $200 in gold, a gift of the congregation. Mr. Bunten, in making the presentation, said in part:

There is always an element of sadness when old associations are sundered—when something in our lives is gone. Our beloved Pastor is about to leave us. The relationship between Pastor and people is to be broken but the ties which bound us so closely for so many years will not be forgotten—they will live with us as a pleasant memory. Dr. Magee has been with us in hours of pleasure and enjoyment, in sickness and sorrow. In all these relations his sympathy has been of the tenderest. He has been a faithful servant of the Lord. Our prayers, dear Pastor, will follow you wheresoever you may go. You have our friendship, esteem and kind regards. King Solomon sent ships after gold but we do better than this. And now, in behalf of many friends, my dear sir, I have the pleasure of presenting to you this token of their esteem, which is a mystery. We hope and trust that this will not be a final farewell.

In responding Dr. Magee said in part:

It is beyond my power at the present moment to make a fitting response. I thank you all for the one you have commissioned to speak so kindly and affectionately. I have spoken many good-byes in public, but this is my personal good-bye, and my heart wells up within me at the parting. My associations with you have always been of the pleasantest and most gratifying character. It touches me deeply to hear my brother say that I have been with you in your sorrows as well as joys. It is indeed a pleasure to know how many have come into the church during my pastorate. Sorrows and joys are things in this life not to be forgotten. Whatever I have said that may be forgotten, do not forget the Great Head of the Church. My brother alluded to new ties that are to be formed. Let me quote a Latin phrase, which, translated, means while forming new friendships, cherish the old ones. I go from here without a shadow upon my heart towards any one. If I have said or done anything during my pastorate to offend any one of you, I pray that it now be forgotten. I will always feel a tender regard for this congregation. I thank you all for the kindness you have extended to me. To see you now and to say good-bye touches my heart. I had not the remotest idea of a parting present, and this token makes me very happy not for its intrinsic value but for the manner in which it was given. Once more good-bye. God bless you. God bless you. Good-bye.

There were many moist eyes when Dr. Magee closed his remarks. On leaving each person shook hands with the Doctor and wished him a speedy recovery to health.

Yesterday the thirtieth annual convention of Baptist Sunday Schools of the Hudson River Central Association came to a close at Cold Spring. The Rev. A. K. Fuller, P. B. Warner, Mary Warner, Mrs. William Terwilliger and Marion Hibbard were present as delegates of the Rondout Baptist Sunday School. The Rev. B. L. Herr, of Tarrytown, presided. The attendance was large. Addresses were made by the Rev. W. Webster, of Newburgh; the Rev. J. Campbell, of New-York City; the Rev. J. Foote, of Sing Sing, and the Rev. I. Davis, of Jersey City. School reports and letters were read. Topics relating to Sunday School work were discussed. A resolution of regret of the coming departure of the Rev. A. K. Fuller to Sioux Falls, Dakota, was unanimously passed. It was stated that Mr. Fuller had done good work for the Sunday School cause during his pastorate here, and it was with sorrow that the Association learned that he was to remove to another field. The following were elected as officers of the Association for the ensuing year: The Rev. B. L. Herr, President; R. E. Lausing, of Poughkeepsie, Vice-President; the Rev. R. Conkling, of Saugerties, Secretary and Treasurer. A. N. Barnes, of this City, was chosen a member of the Executive Board. In point of interest, attendance and work accomplished the Convention was the most successful the Association has held in several years.

The sessions of the General Synod of the Reformed Church now being held in Catskill are largely attended. The following officers have been elected: The Rev. Dr. Evert VanSlyke, President; the Rev. Christian VanDerVeen, Vice-President; the Rev. Messrs. Henry E. Cobb and H. E. Dasker, Clerks. The time for holding sessions is arranged as follows: From 9 A. M. to 12 M.; from 2:30 to 5:30 P. M.; evening sessions begin at 7:30. The Synodical sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Hutton on Wednesday evening. The Doctor took as his text the words: "And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him and said unto him the Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valor." The sermon was an eloquent one. Among the sad incidents of the evening session was the reception of a message from the Rev. Dr. Philip Phelps, Jr., of Schoharie County, saying that his daughter had perished in the Johnstown flood and he was thus unable to be present.

The camp meeting for the Newburgh District will be held in Wesley Grove, near Neelytown, on the Montgomery Branch of the Erie Railroad, commencing on Thursday, August 1, and closing on Friday, August 9.

Children's Day will be appropriately celebrated on Sunday in St. James M. E. Church, Kingston.

The Ways of Horses.

[From the Montgomery Standard.]

A horse is a queer animal. It knows more than any other animal except a dog and we have seen a dog that was afraid of its own shadow. The other day while the horse of Charles Ketcham was standing at the depot, the Wallkill Valley and Erie trains both came rushing past it with steam blowing off. The horse not as much as raised its ears. The wind, however, moved a little piece of white paper on the ground about half the size of an envelope, and the horse was ready to make tracks for Comfort's Hill without heeding the notice on our new iron bridge.

What a Returned "Boomer Says."

[From the Middletown Argus.]

Thomas Lain, who went West several months ago to join the Oklahoma boomers, has returned to this City. He stopped for several weeks at a farm house near the Oklahoma line and when the promised land was opened for settlement joined the boomers and located a claim. He likes the country and the climate but does not take kindly to the rough mode of living necessary, and is not certain that he will occupy his claim.

Ulster County Soldiers Going to Gettysburg —Affairs of Montrepose Cemetery—A Feline Curiosity—Adulteration Discussed by Grocers—Places Sightly and Unsightly.

At a meeting of the Montrepose Cemetery Association, held on Monday, James G. Lindsley, John McEntee and A. A. Crosby were appointed a committee to transact business for the Association. Yesterday afternoon the committee met and determined that hereafter the charge for opening new graves, including sodding, will be $4 for adults and $3 for children. Frederick Port was appointed Superintendent. In the past every owner of a lot has been supposed to take care of it. The Association has decided to charge a yearly fee, and the work hereafter to be done under the supervision of the Superintendent, who will be responsible for the appearance of the grounds.

The monument of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment, erected on the Gettysburg battlefield, will be dedicated on July 25. The surviving members of the Regiment and their friends who will accompany them to Gettysburg will leave this City by special train on Monday, July 24.

A little five-year-old girl, who was induced to allow a physician here to vaccinate her yesterday, by being told how "nice" it would be to have a pretty little flower put on her arm, stood the operation bravely for a time and then said, very coolly: "That'll do, Doctor, that'll do."

It Costs Less.

On the question of real economy Hood's Sarsaparilla is so far ahead of other preparations as to place them entirely out of the race as competitors. Here are facts in regard to this popular medicine, easily susceptible of conclusive proof:

1. Hood's Sarsaparilla costs the Manufacturer more than any other competing preparation, because it is more highly concentrated and contains more real medicinal value.

2. It costs the Jobber more, as a consequence of the fact just stated.

3. It costs the Retail Druggist more, for the same reason as can easily be learned by inquiry. Hence the desire of some retailers to sell their own preparations, which costs them less, and for which they get the same price, thus making more money. But

4. It costs the Consumer less than any other medicine, because of its greater concentrated strength and the quantity in each bottle, and because it is the only preparation of which can truly be said, "100 Doses One Dollar."

That the people appreciate this is shown by the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has the Largest Sale of any sarsaparilla or blood purifier. It possesses peculiar merit and effects wonderful cures.

A Point for You.

When you buy a medicine, you want the best. Ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist upon having it. Do not let any argument or persuasion influence you to buy what you do not want. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I procured one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor Enterprise Belleville, Mich.
